Dear Lord Jenkins,

Re Electoral Reform Commission

I attended the meeting that you recently addressed in the House of Commons. Having listened to the view expressed by various members and also considered the terms of reference which you are working to. I have to say that I agree that it is not possible to reach a satisfactory conclusion, given your terms of reference.

I consider that the First Past the Post system is far more satisfactory than any form of PR.

I hope your committee will consider the option of stating that the present system should remain.

Yours sincerely,
