A collection of vintage wine labels from Quinta do Noval, arranged diagonally. The labels feature the text 'Quinta do Noval' and the year of production (1955, 1963, or 1970). The labels are set against a background of large, bold, black numbers 'N63'.

A vertical wine label for Quinta do Noval 1945 vintage. The label features large, bold, black serif capital letters spelling "N45". Above this main text, there are two smaller, slanted lines of text: "Quinta do Noval 1945" on the left and "Quinta do Noval 1945" on the right. The label is set against a background with faint, diagonal repeating text: "Quinta do Noval 1945 (S)ingle", "Quinta do Noval 1945", and "Quinta do Noval 1945".

The graphic features the word "NOVA" in large, bold, black letters. The letters are tilted diagonally, creating a sense of depth. Overlaid on the letters are several diagonal text labels in a smaller, italicized font, representing vintage years from 1970 to 2000. The labels are positioned as follows:

- "Quinta do Noval Nacional 1970" (top right)
- "Quinta do Noval 1985" (middle right)
- "Quinta do Noval 1985" (bottom right)
- "Quinta do Noval 1985" (bottom left)
- "Quinta do Noval 1985" (middle left)
- "Quinta do Noval 1985" (top left)
- "Quinta do Noval 2000" (top right)
- "Quinta do Noval 2000" (middle right)
- "Quinta do Noval 2000" (bottom right)
- "Quinta do Noval 2000" (bottom left)

The image features a large, bold black number '55' on the left and a large black letter 'N' on the right. A diagonal line of text 'Quinta do Noval' is repeated four times across the page, with each iteration rotated 45 degrees clockwise. The first iteration is at the bottom left, followed by one near the center, another towards the top right, and the final one near the top left. The text is in a serif font.
