The Corks

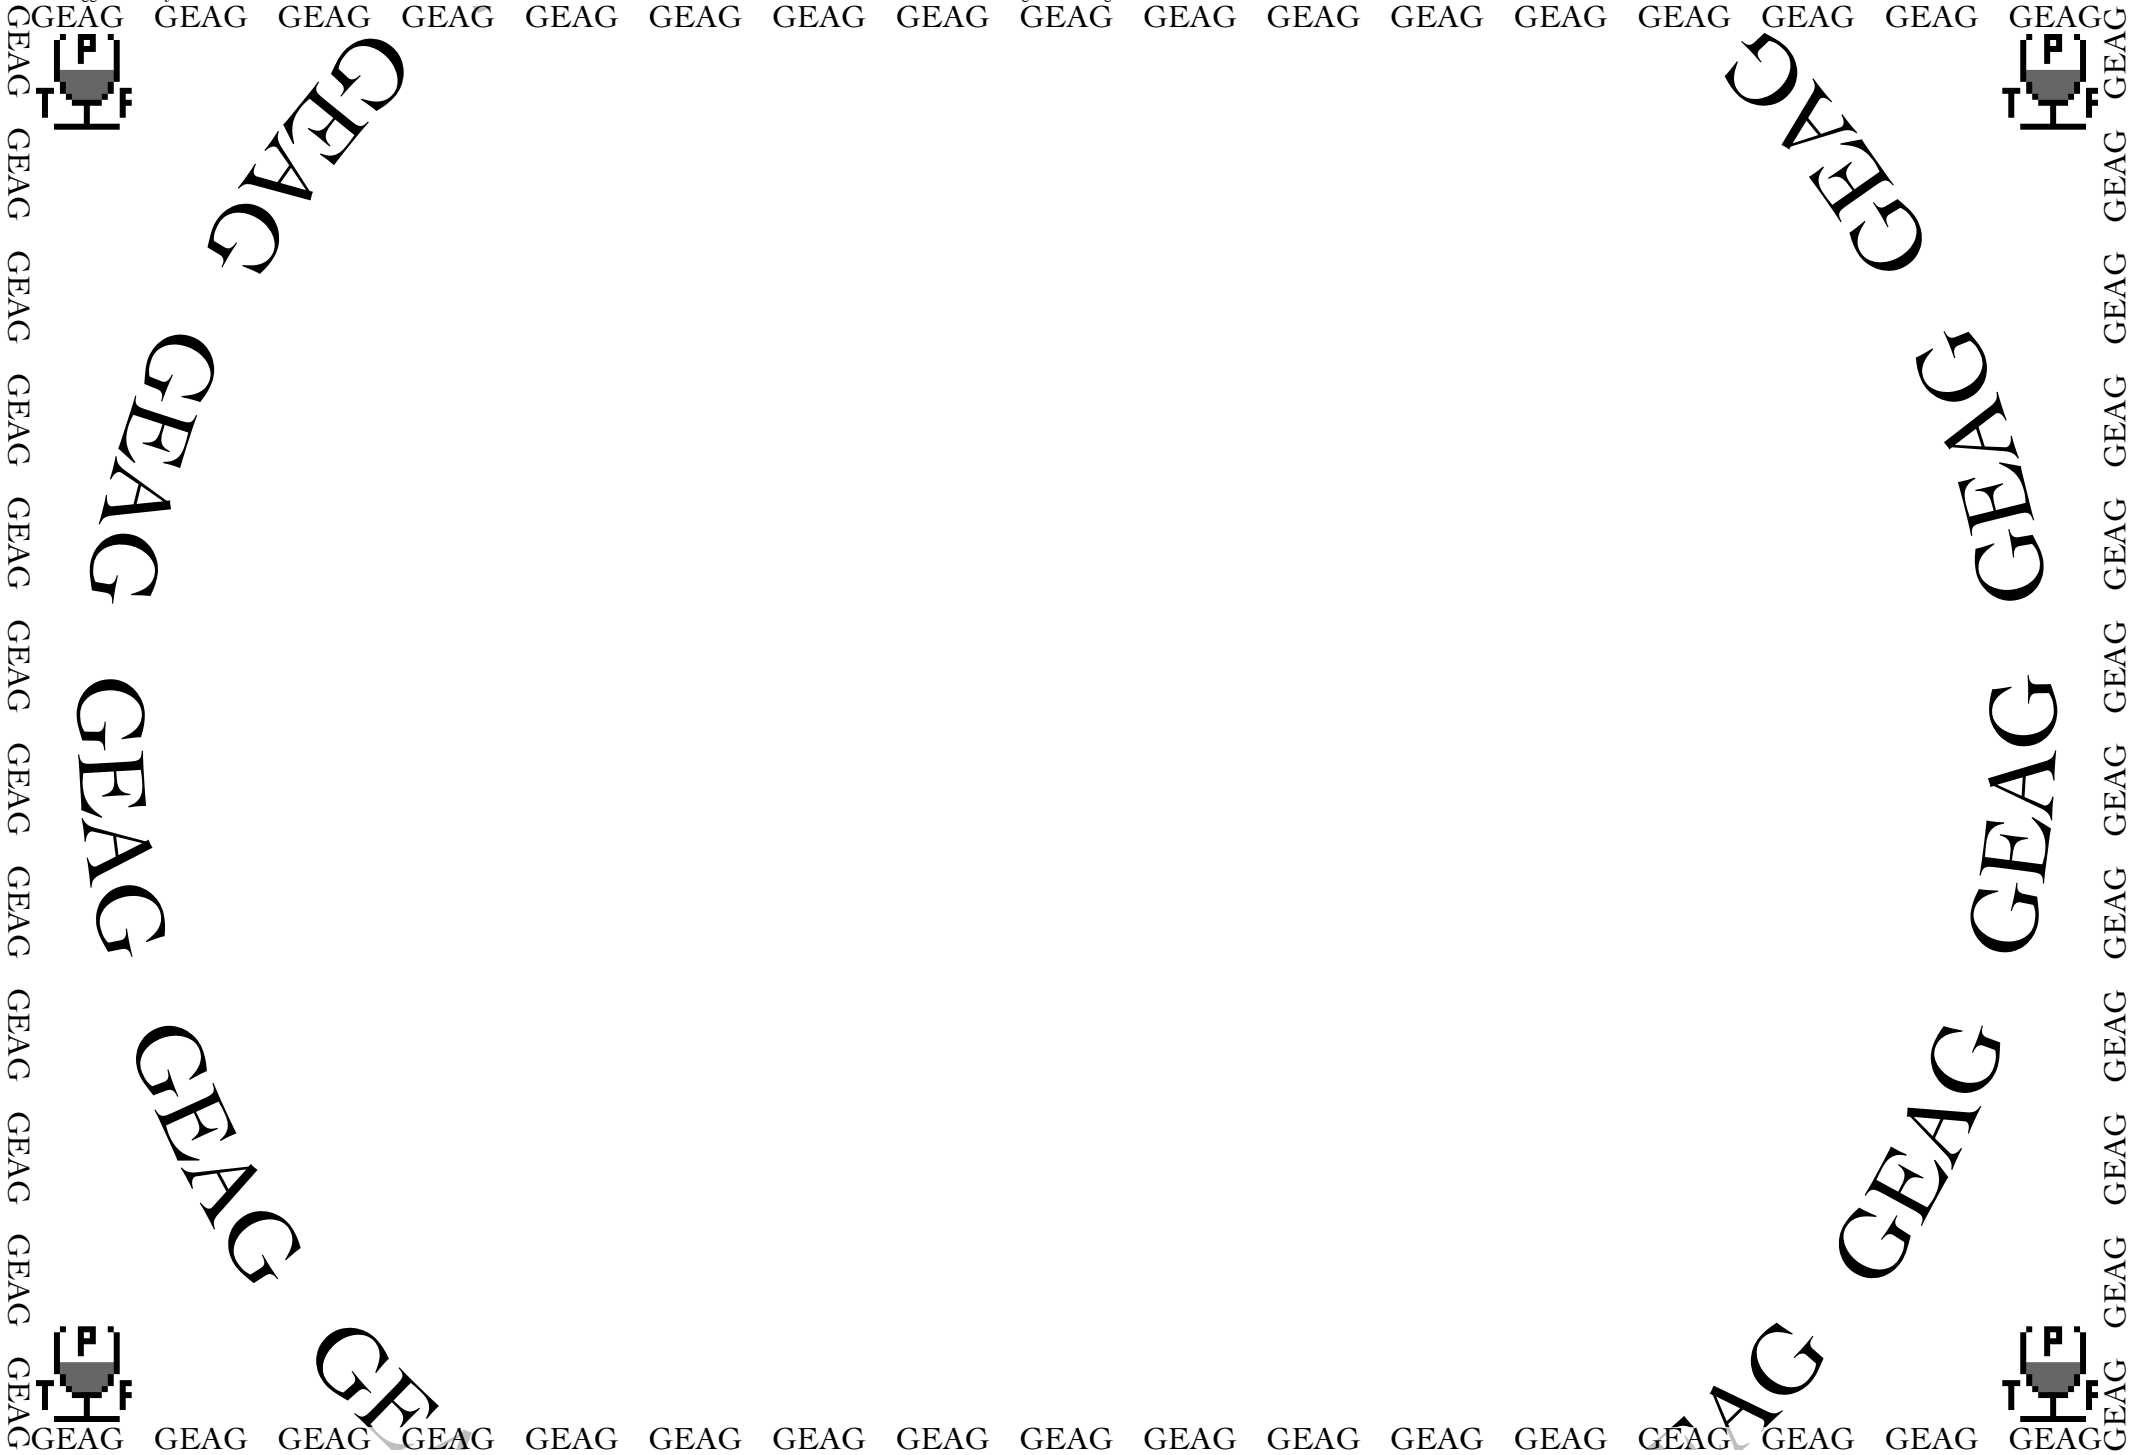

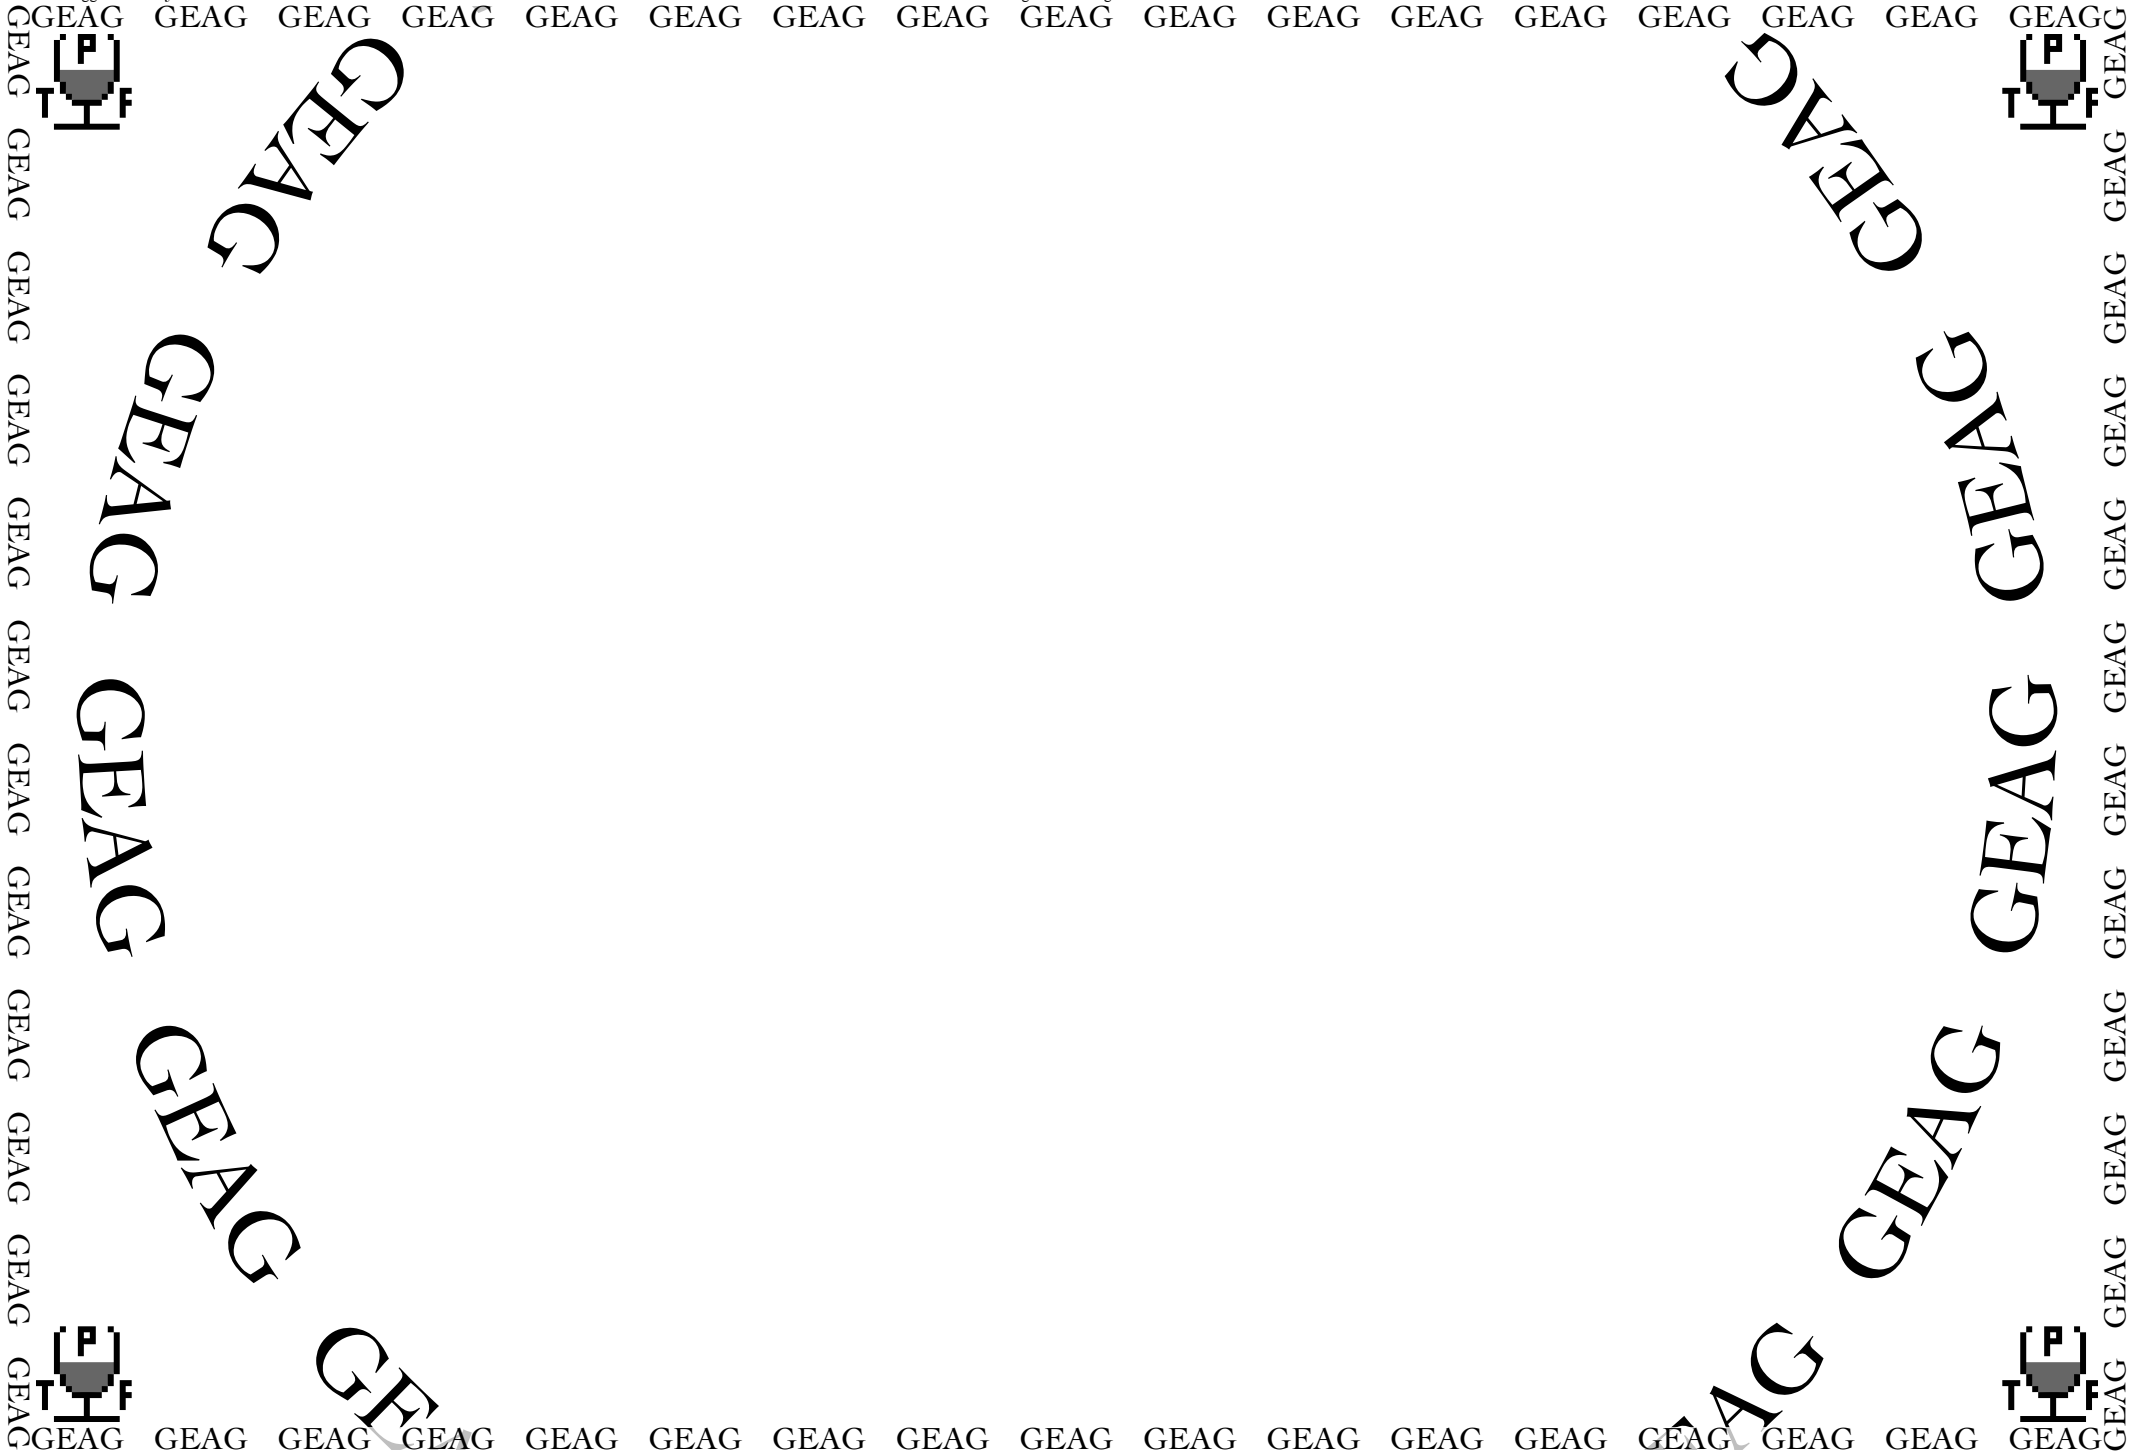

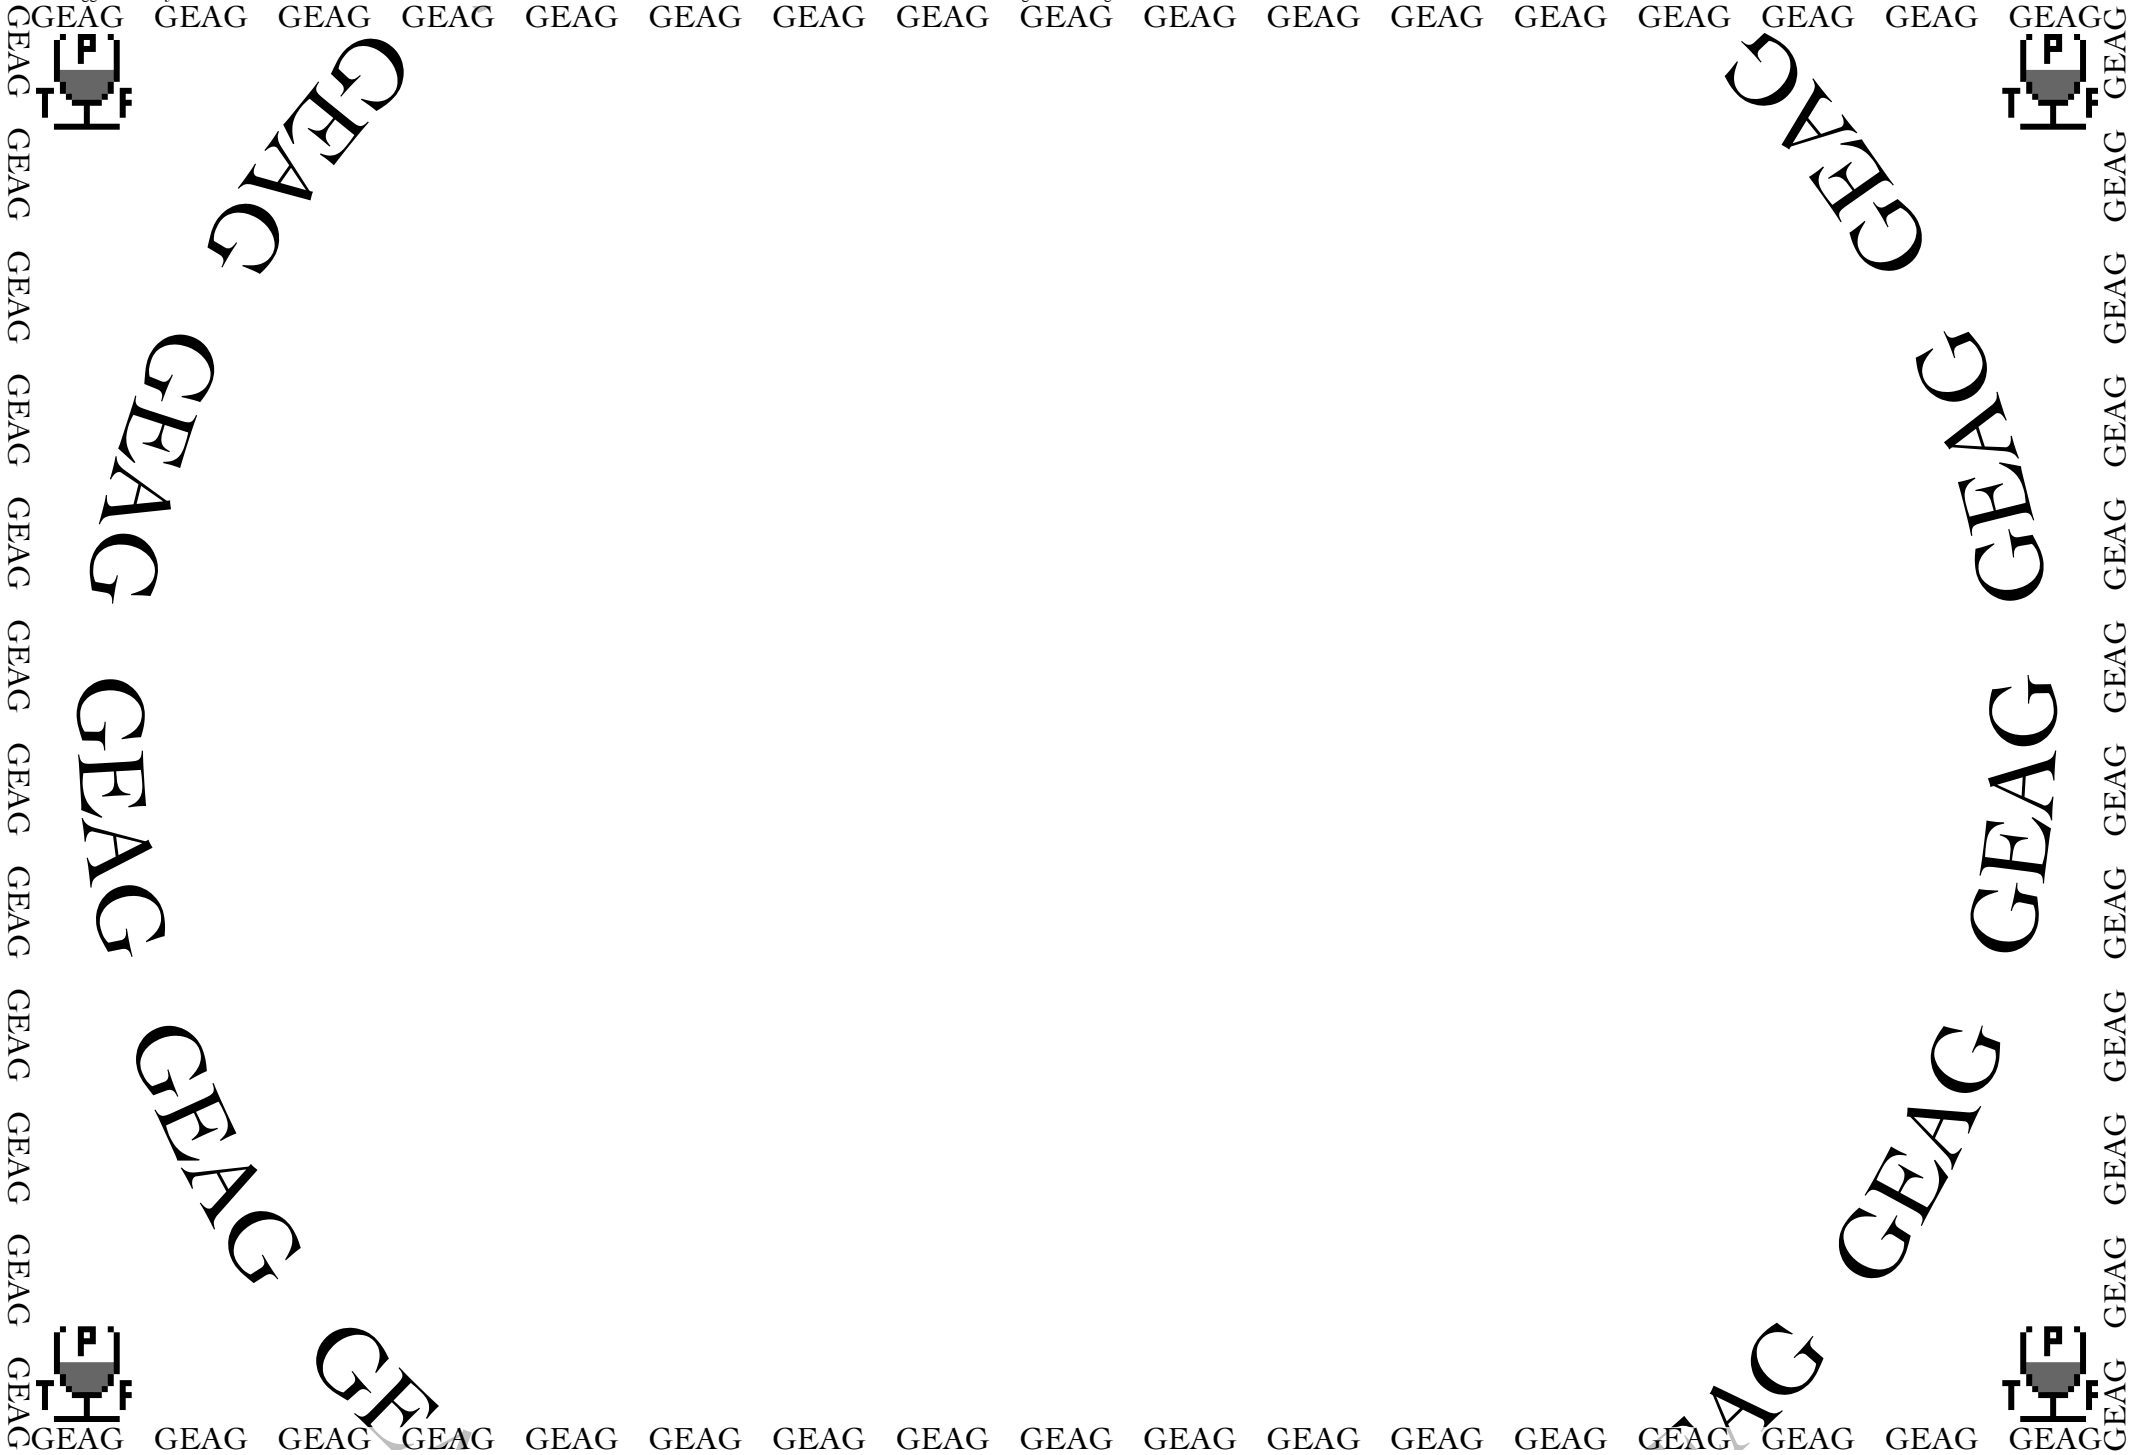

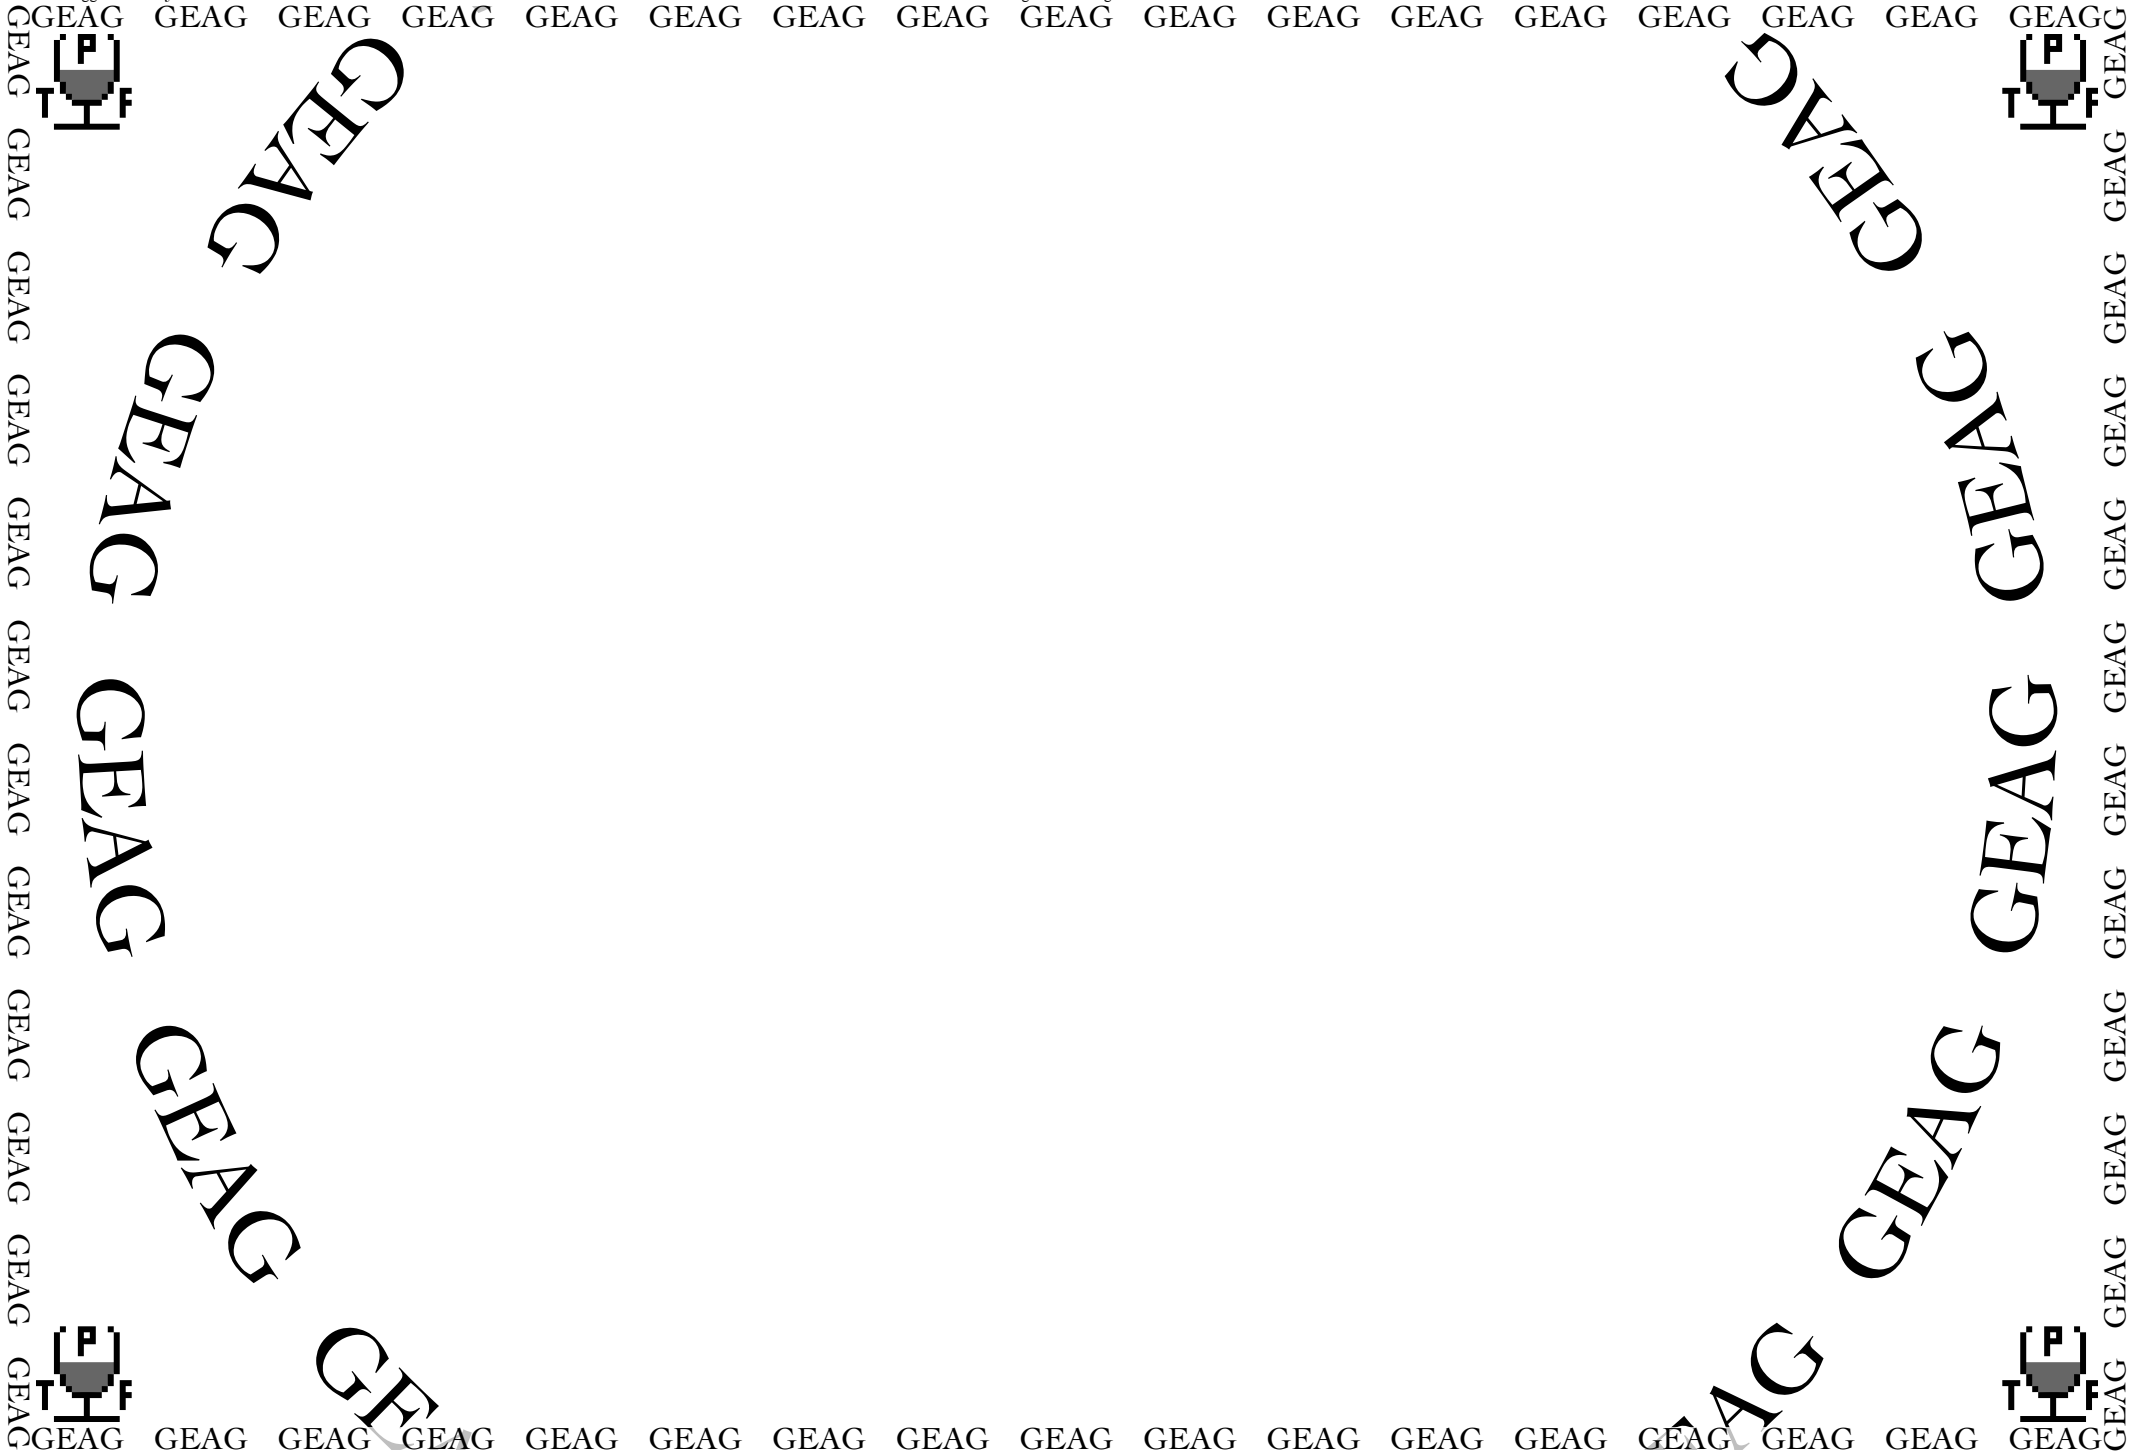

[illegible]

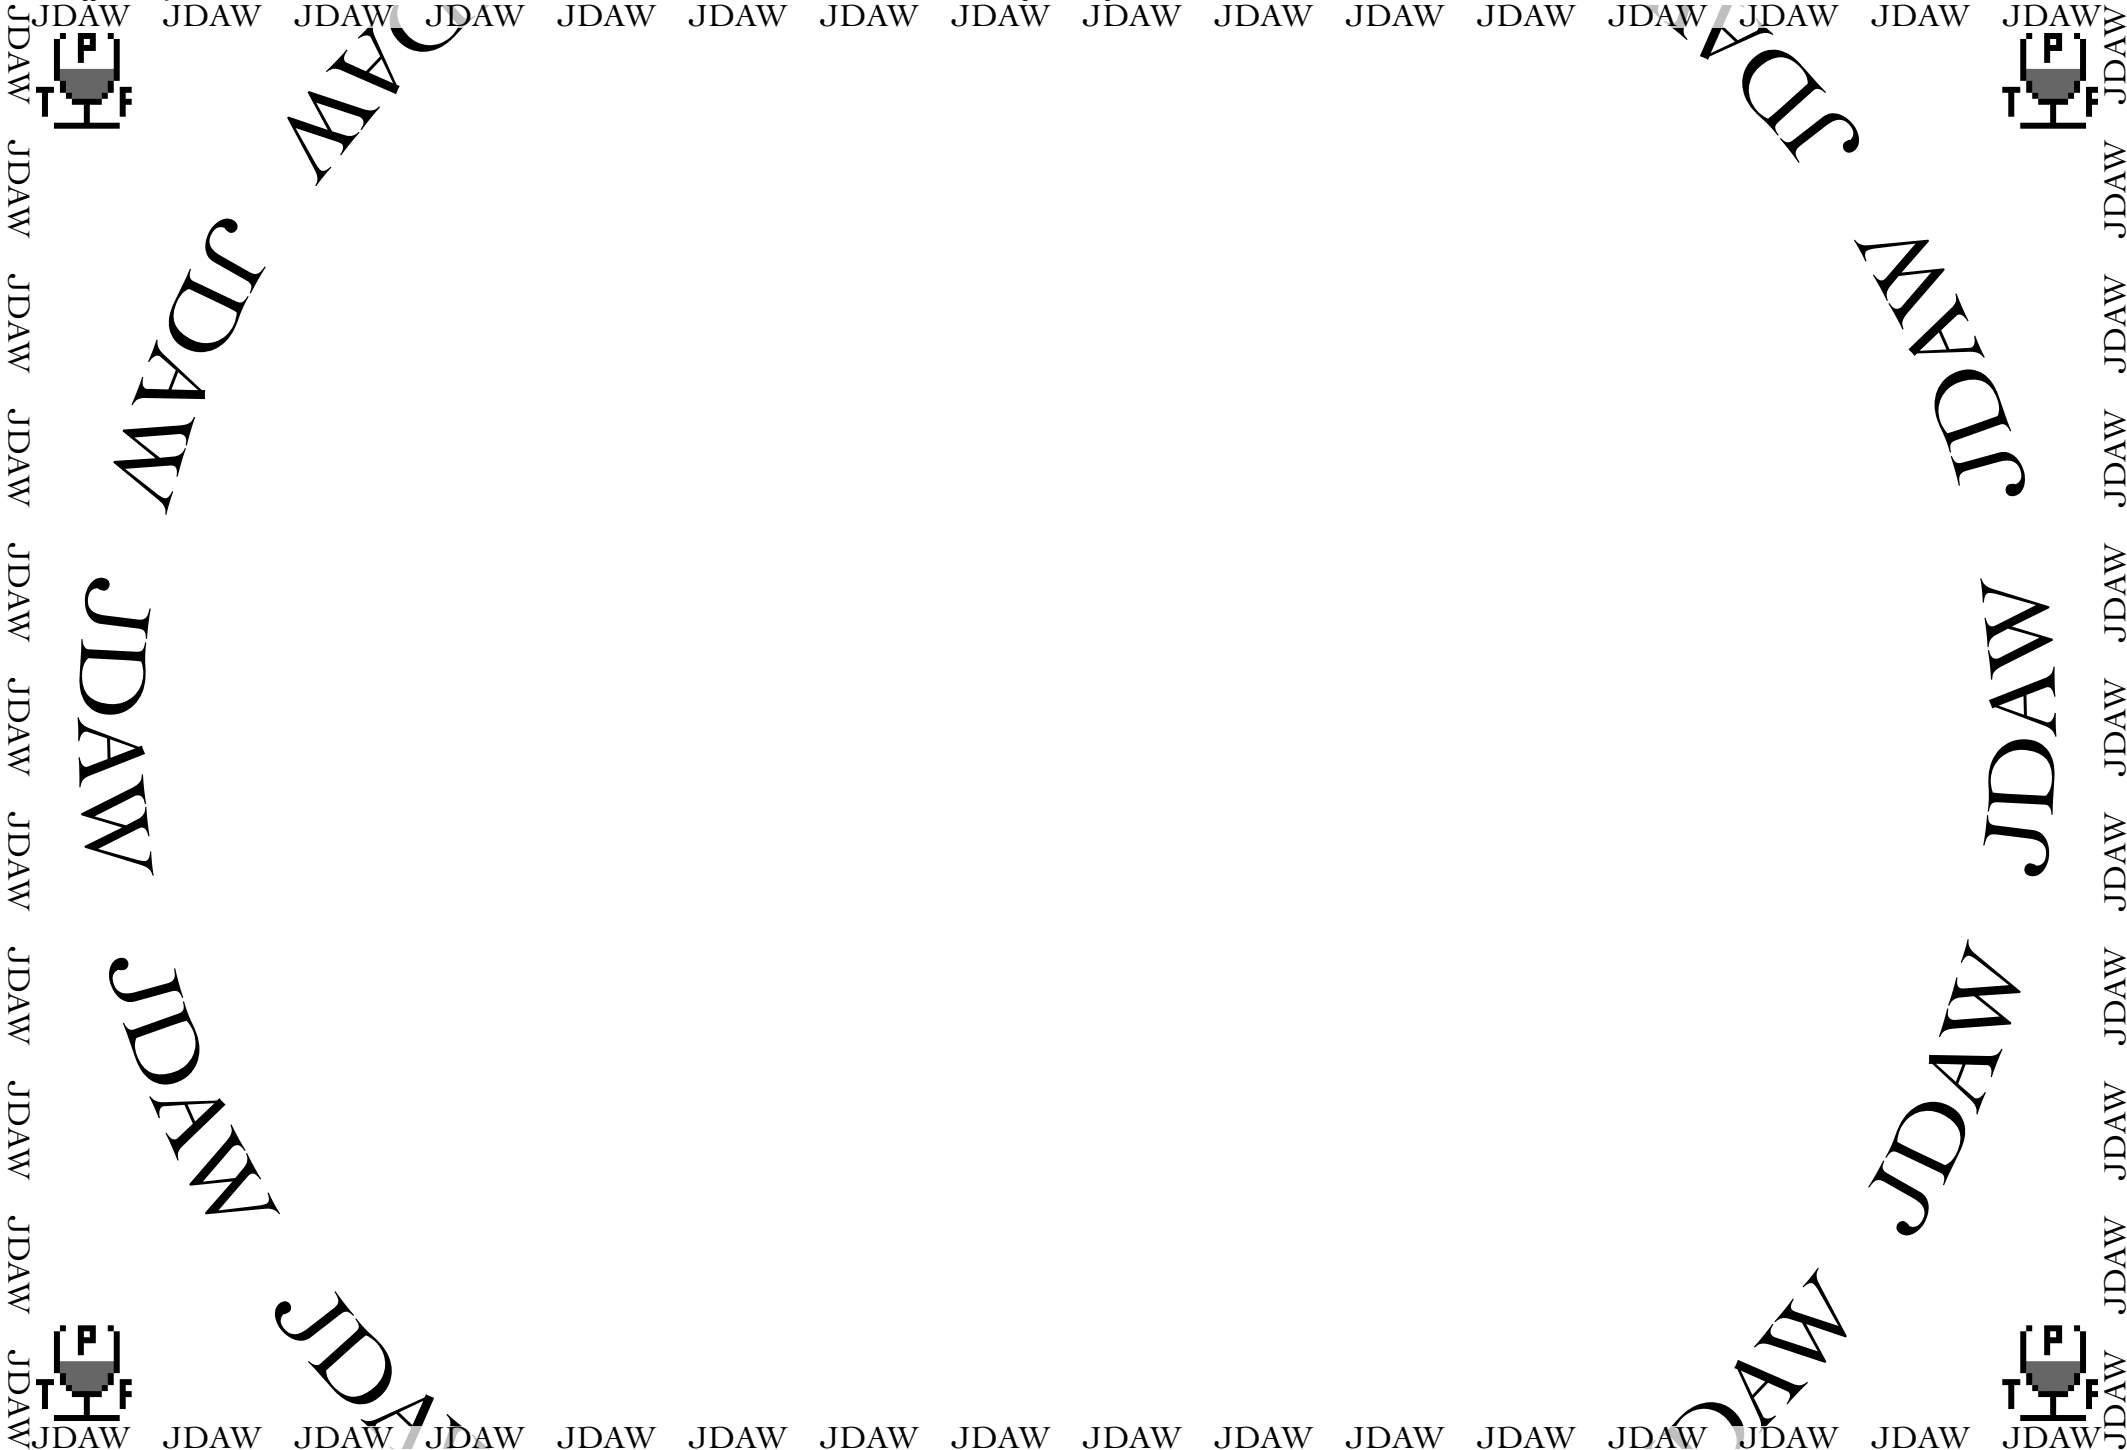

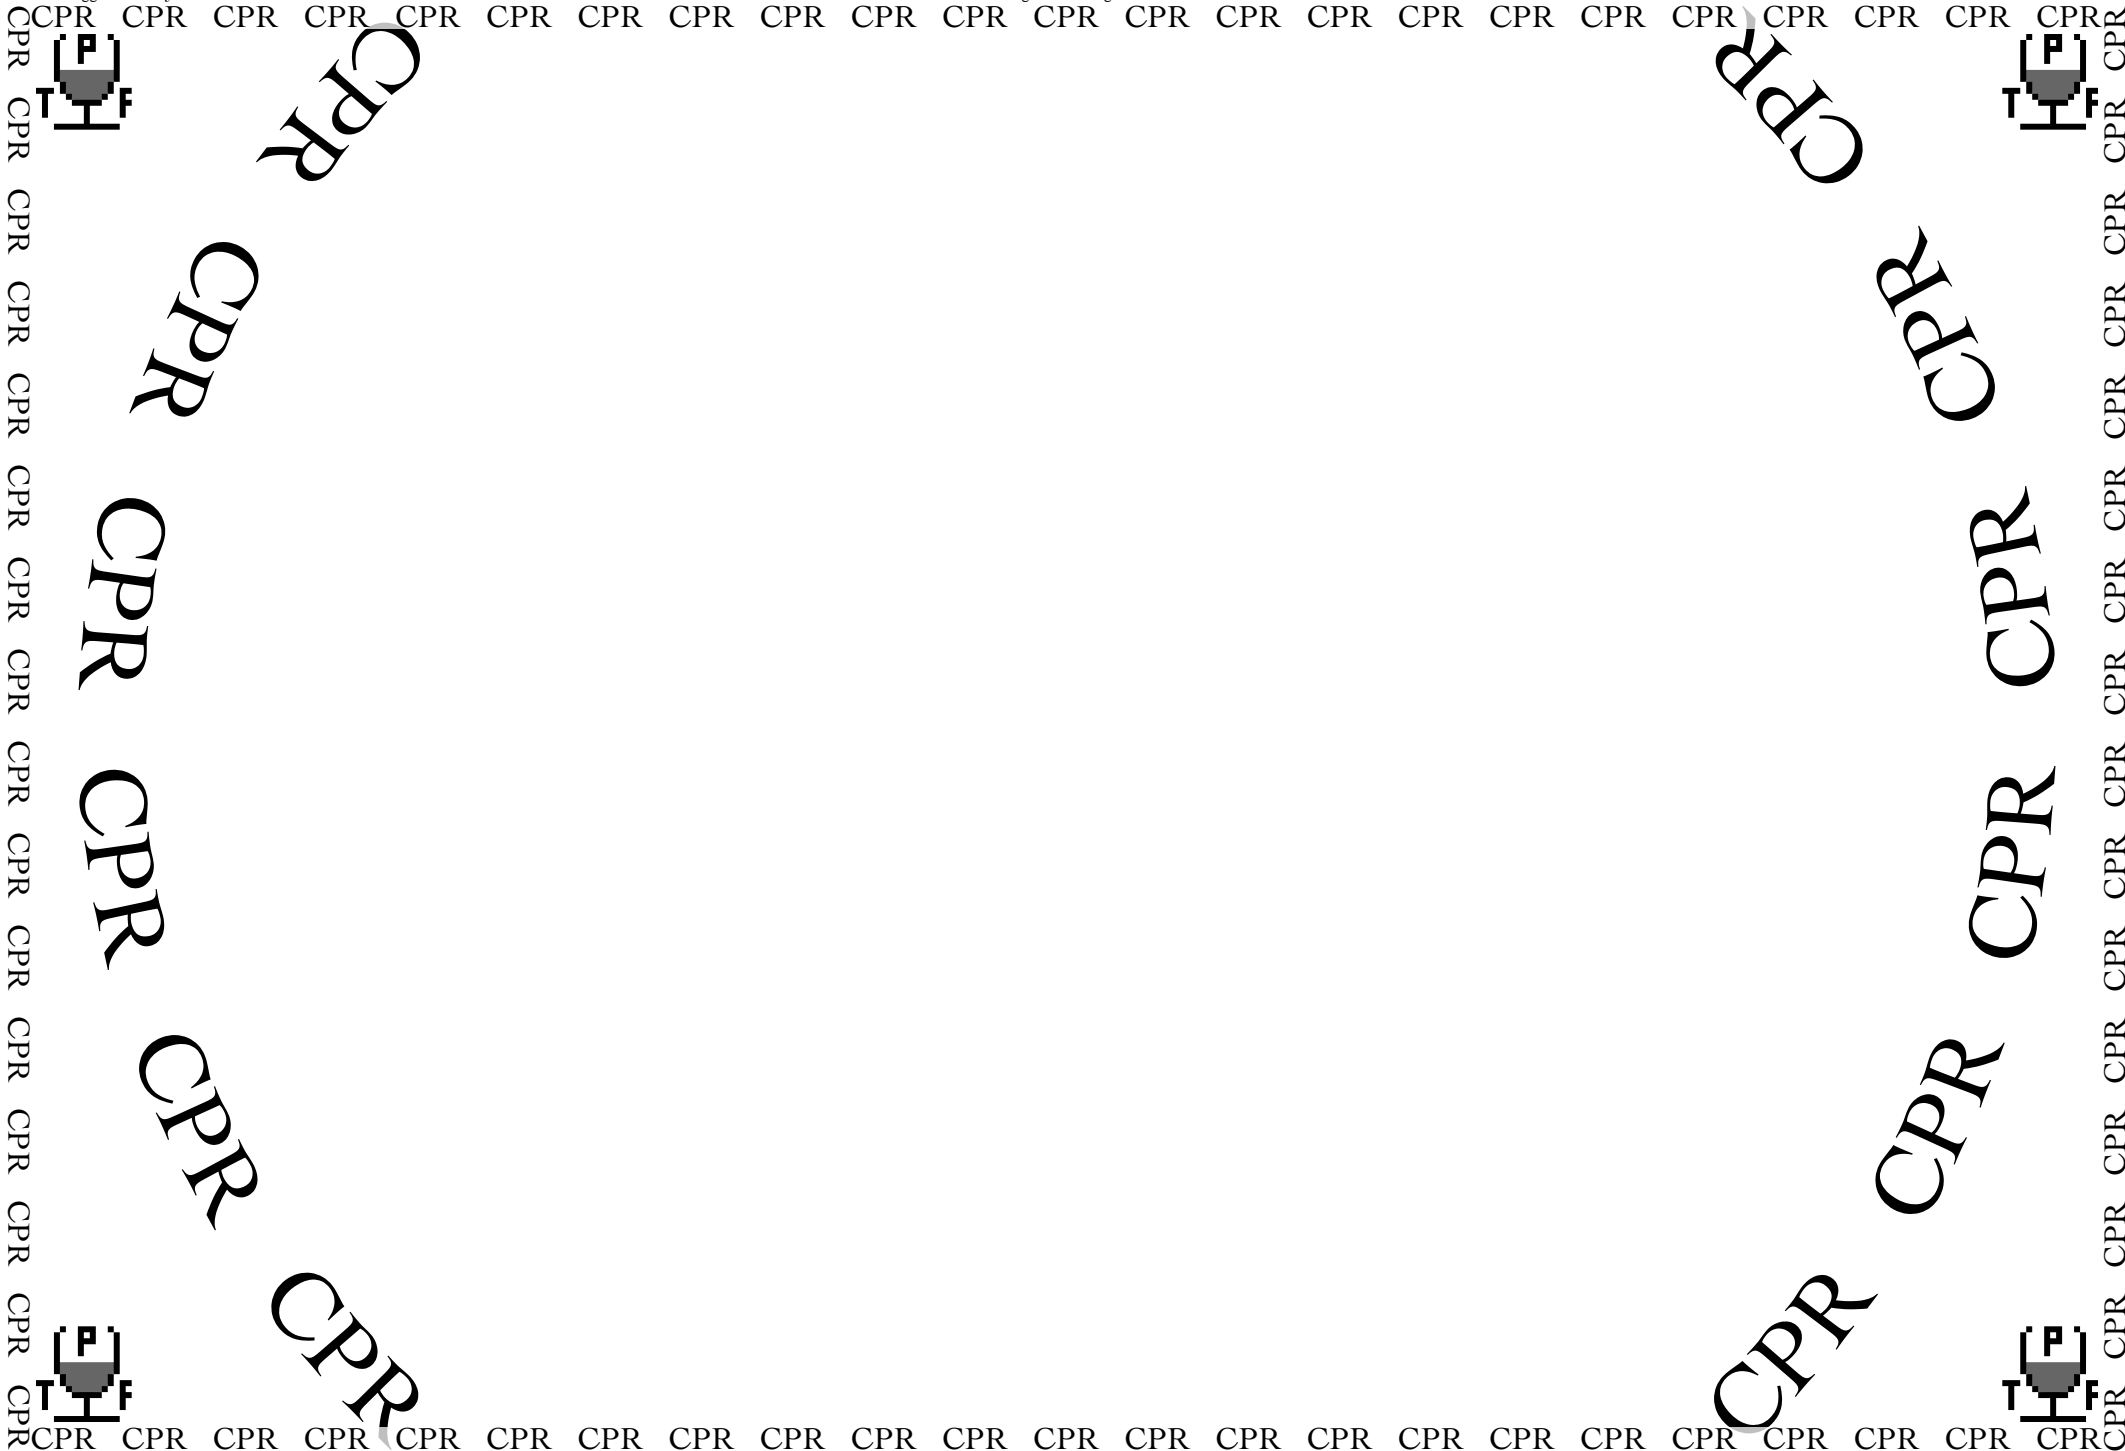

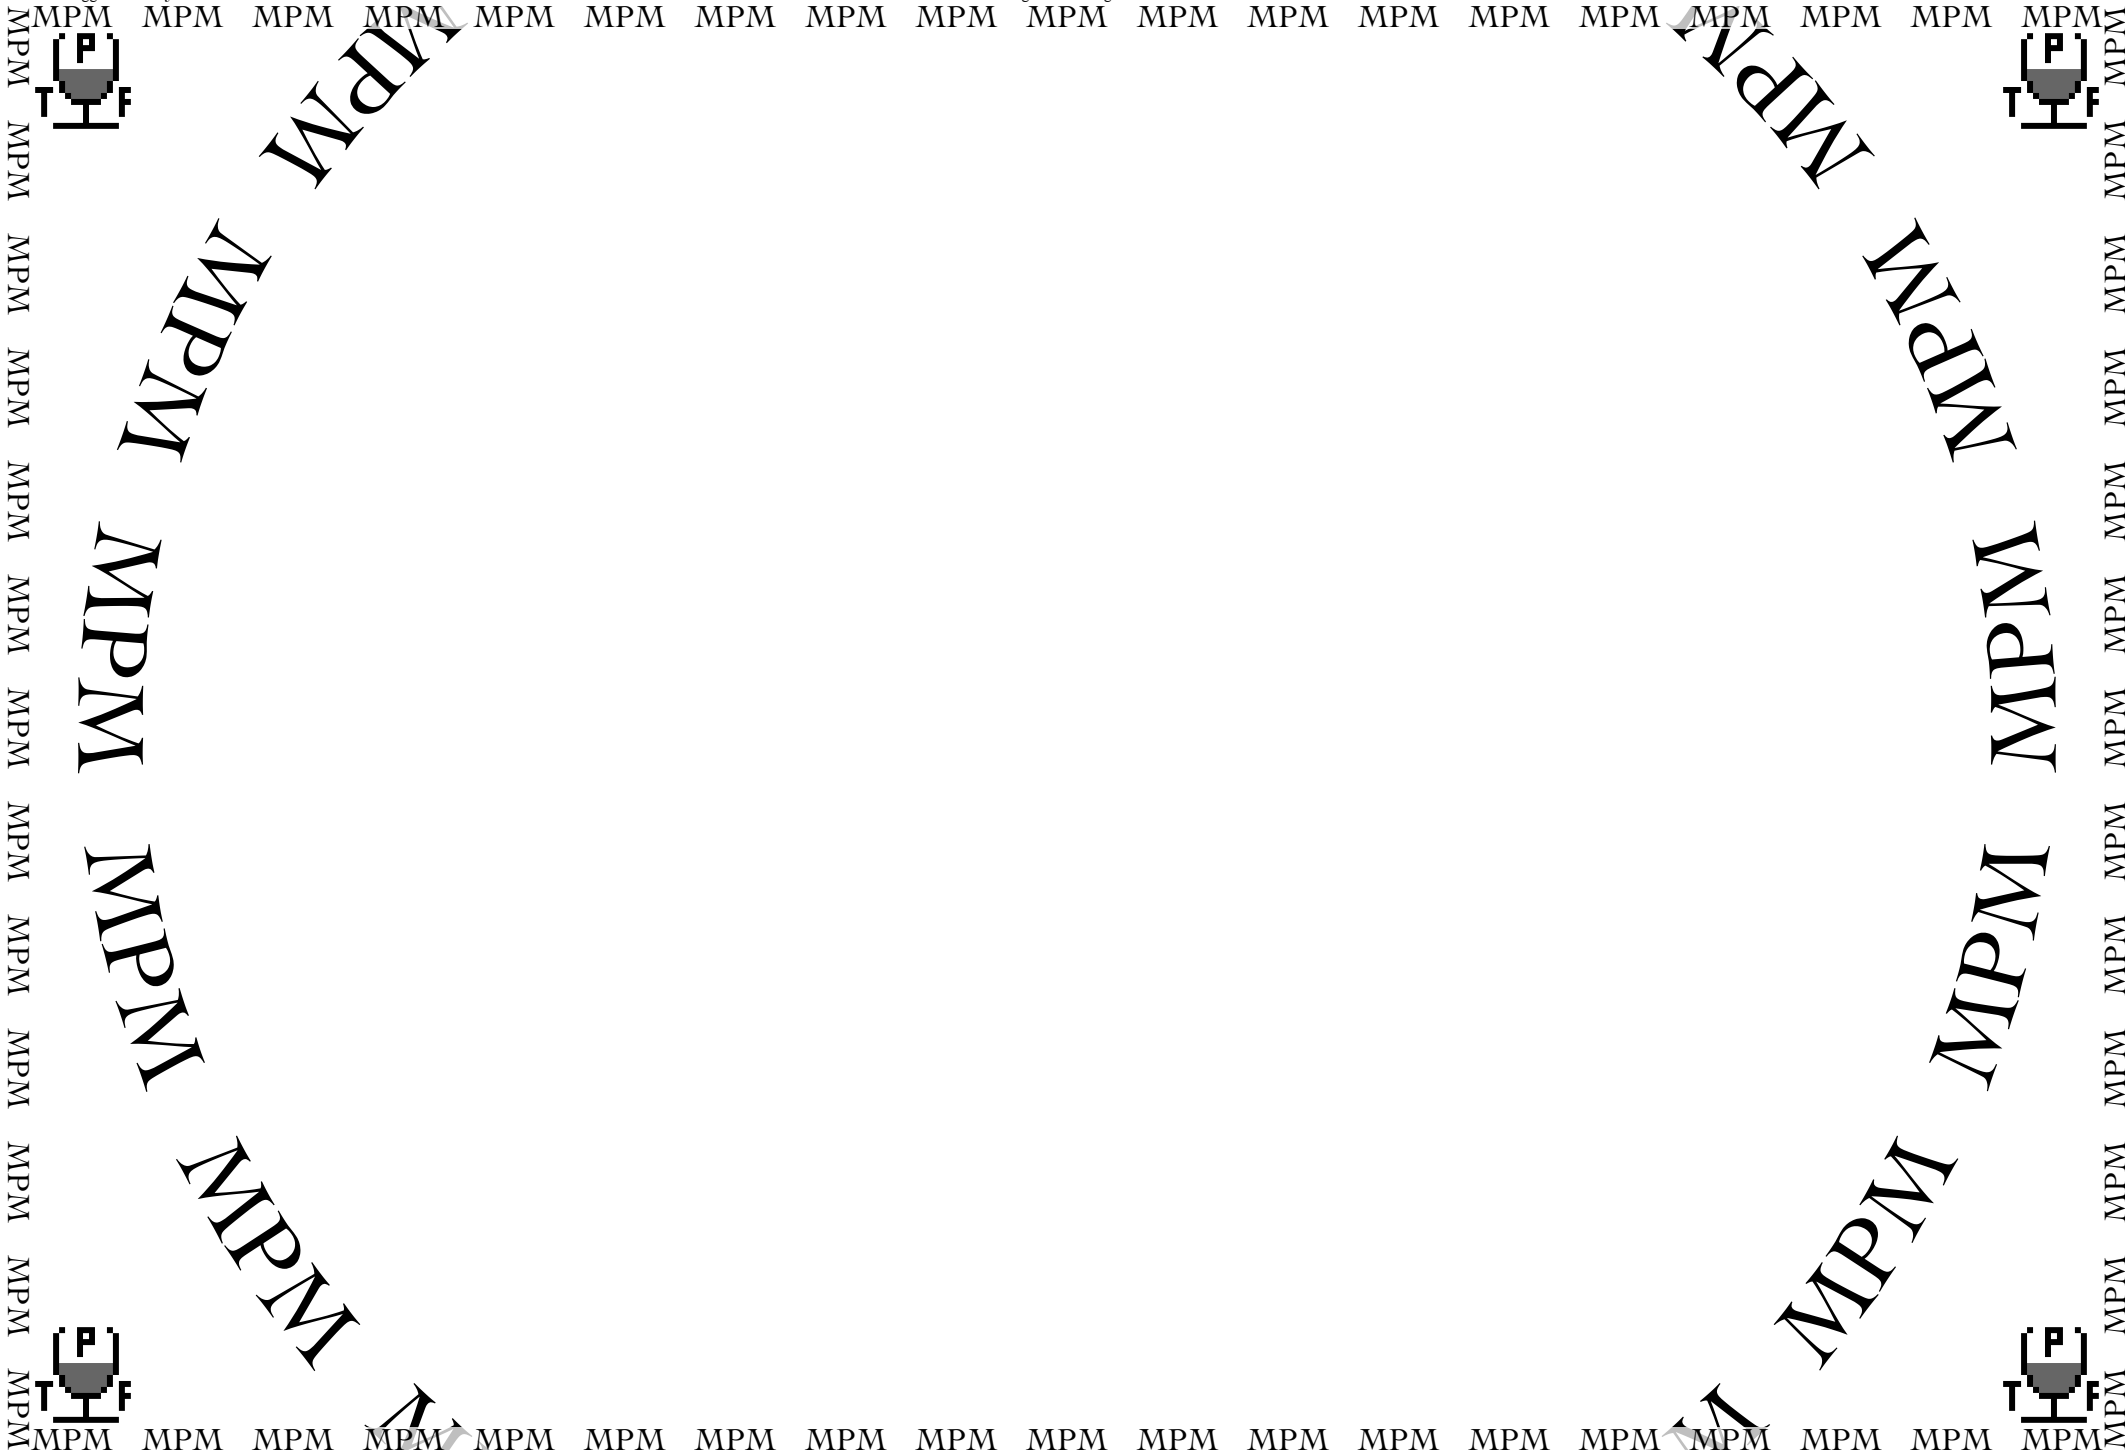

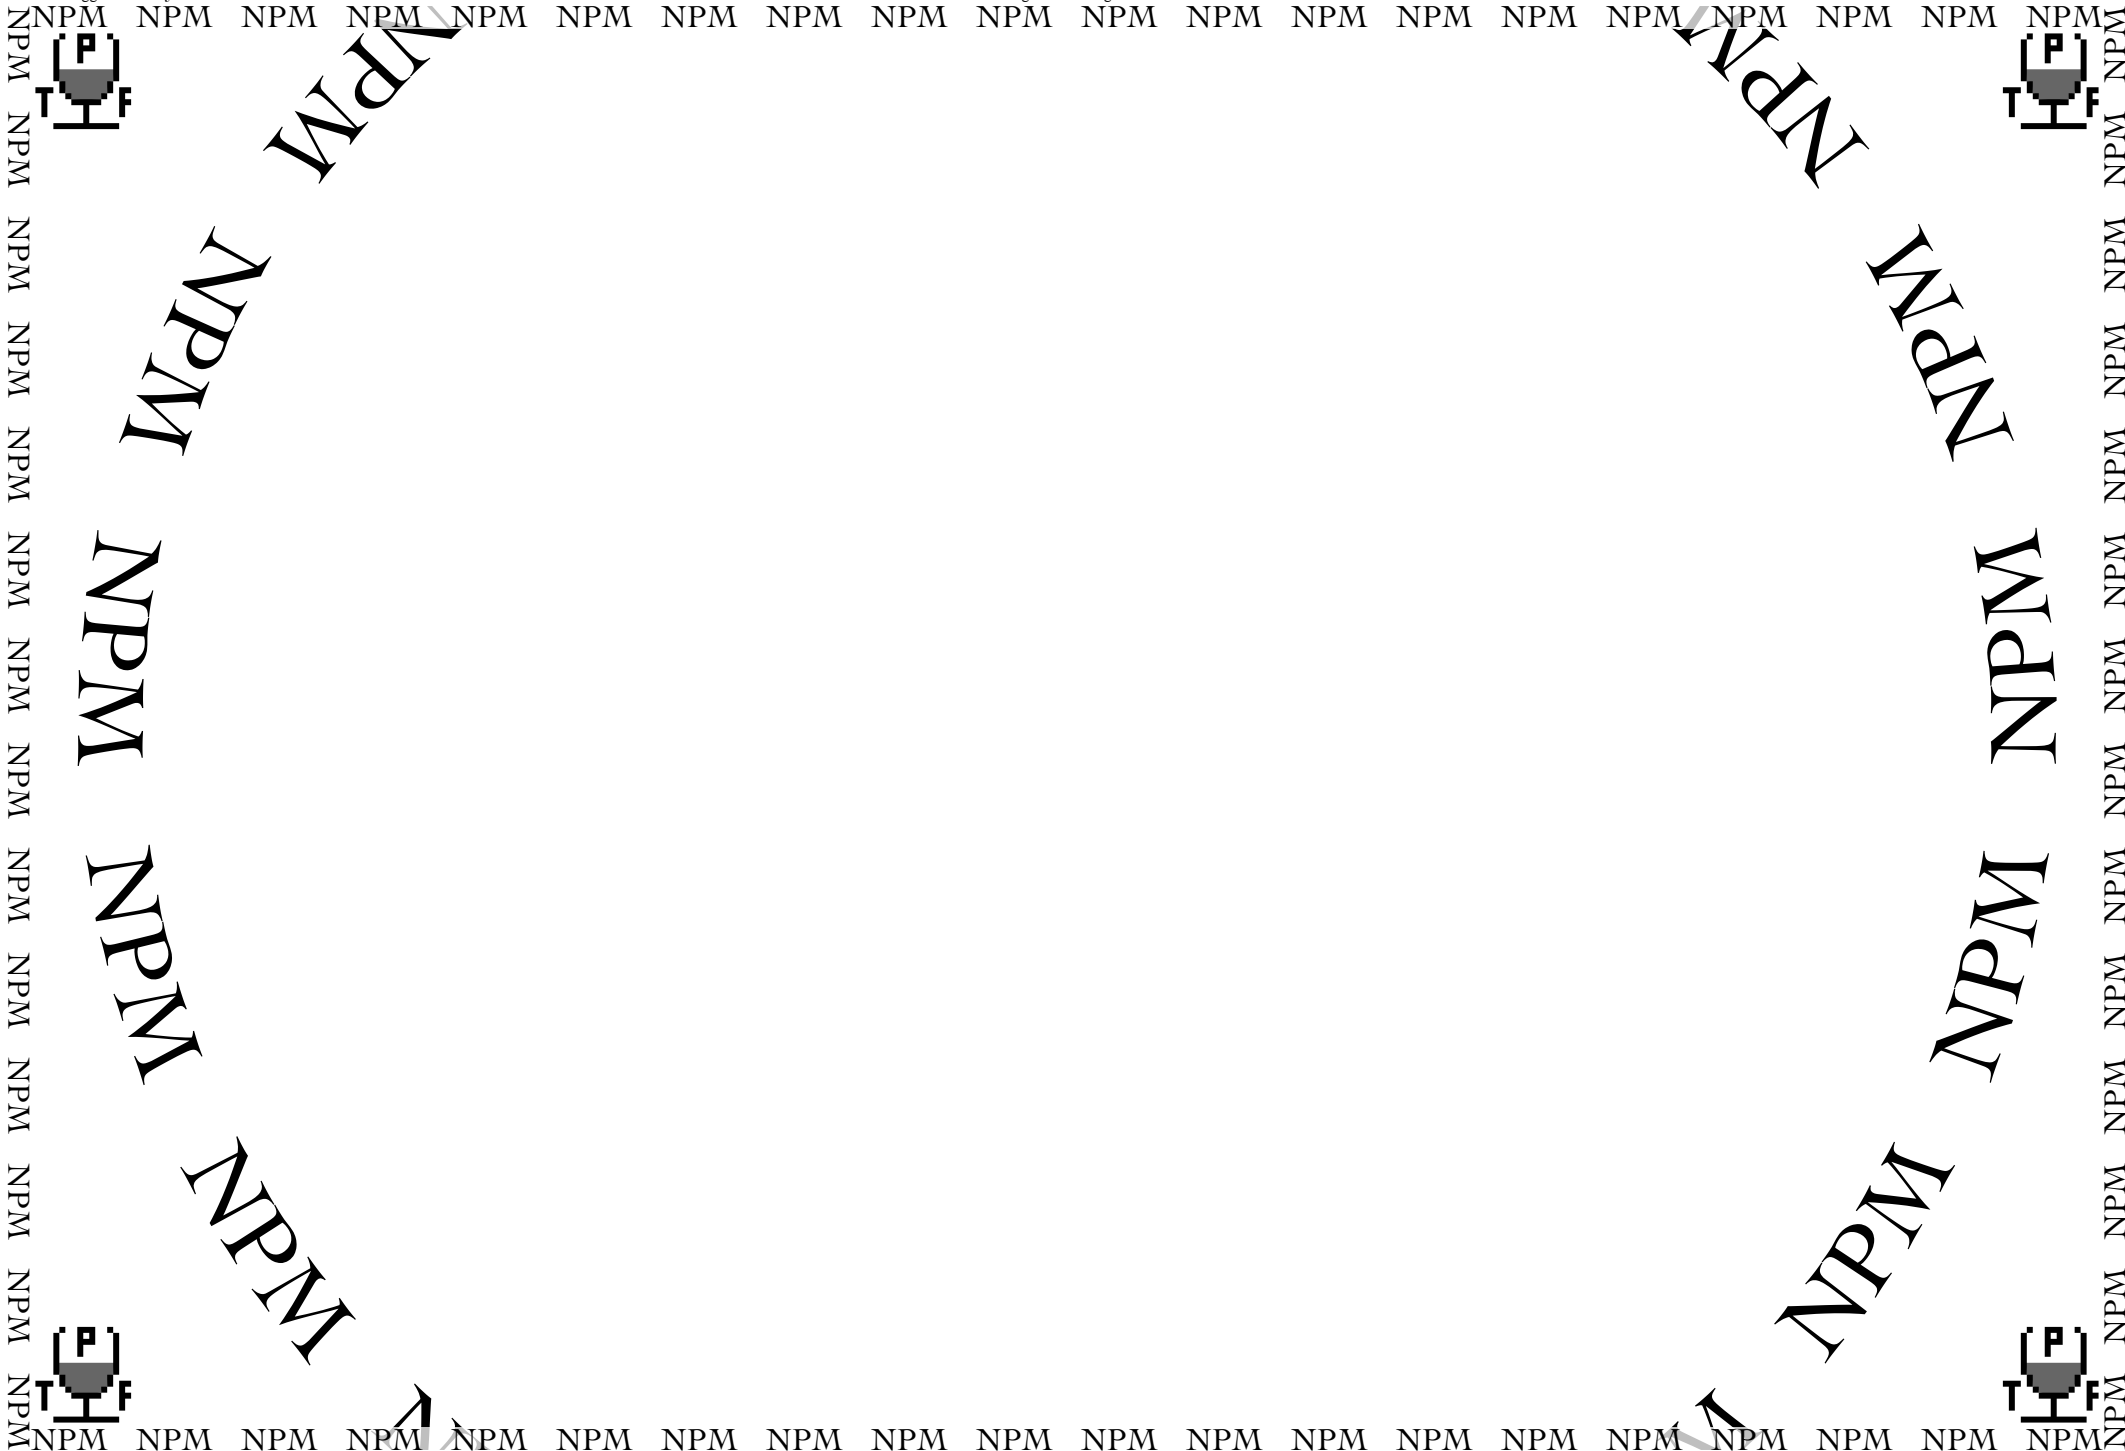

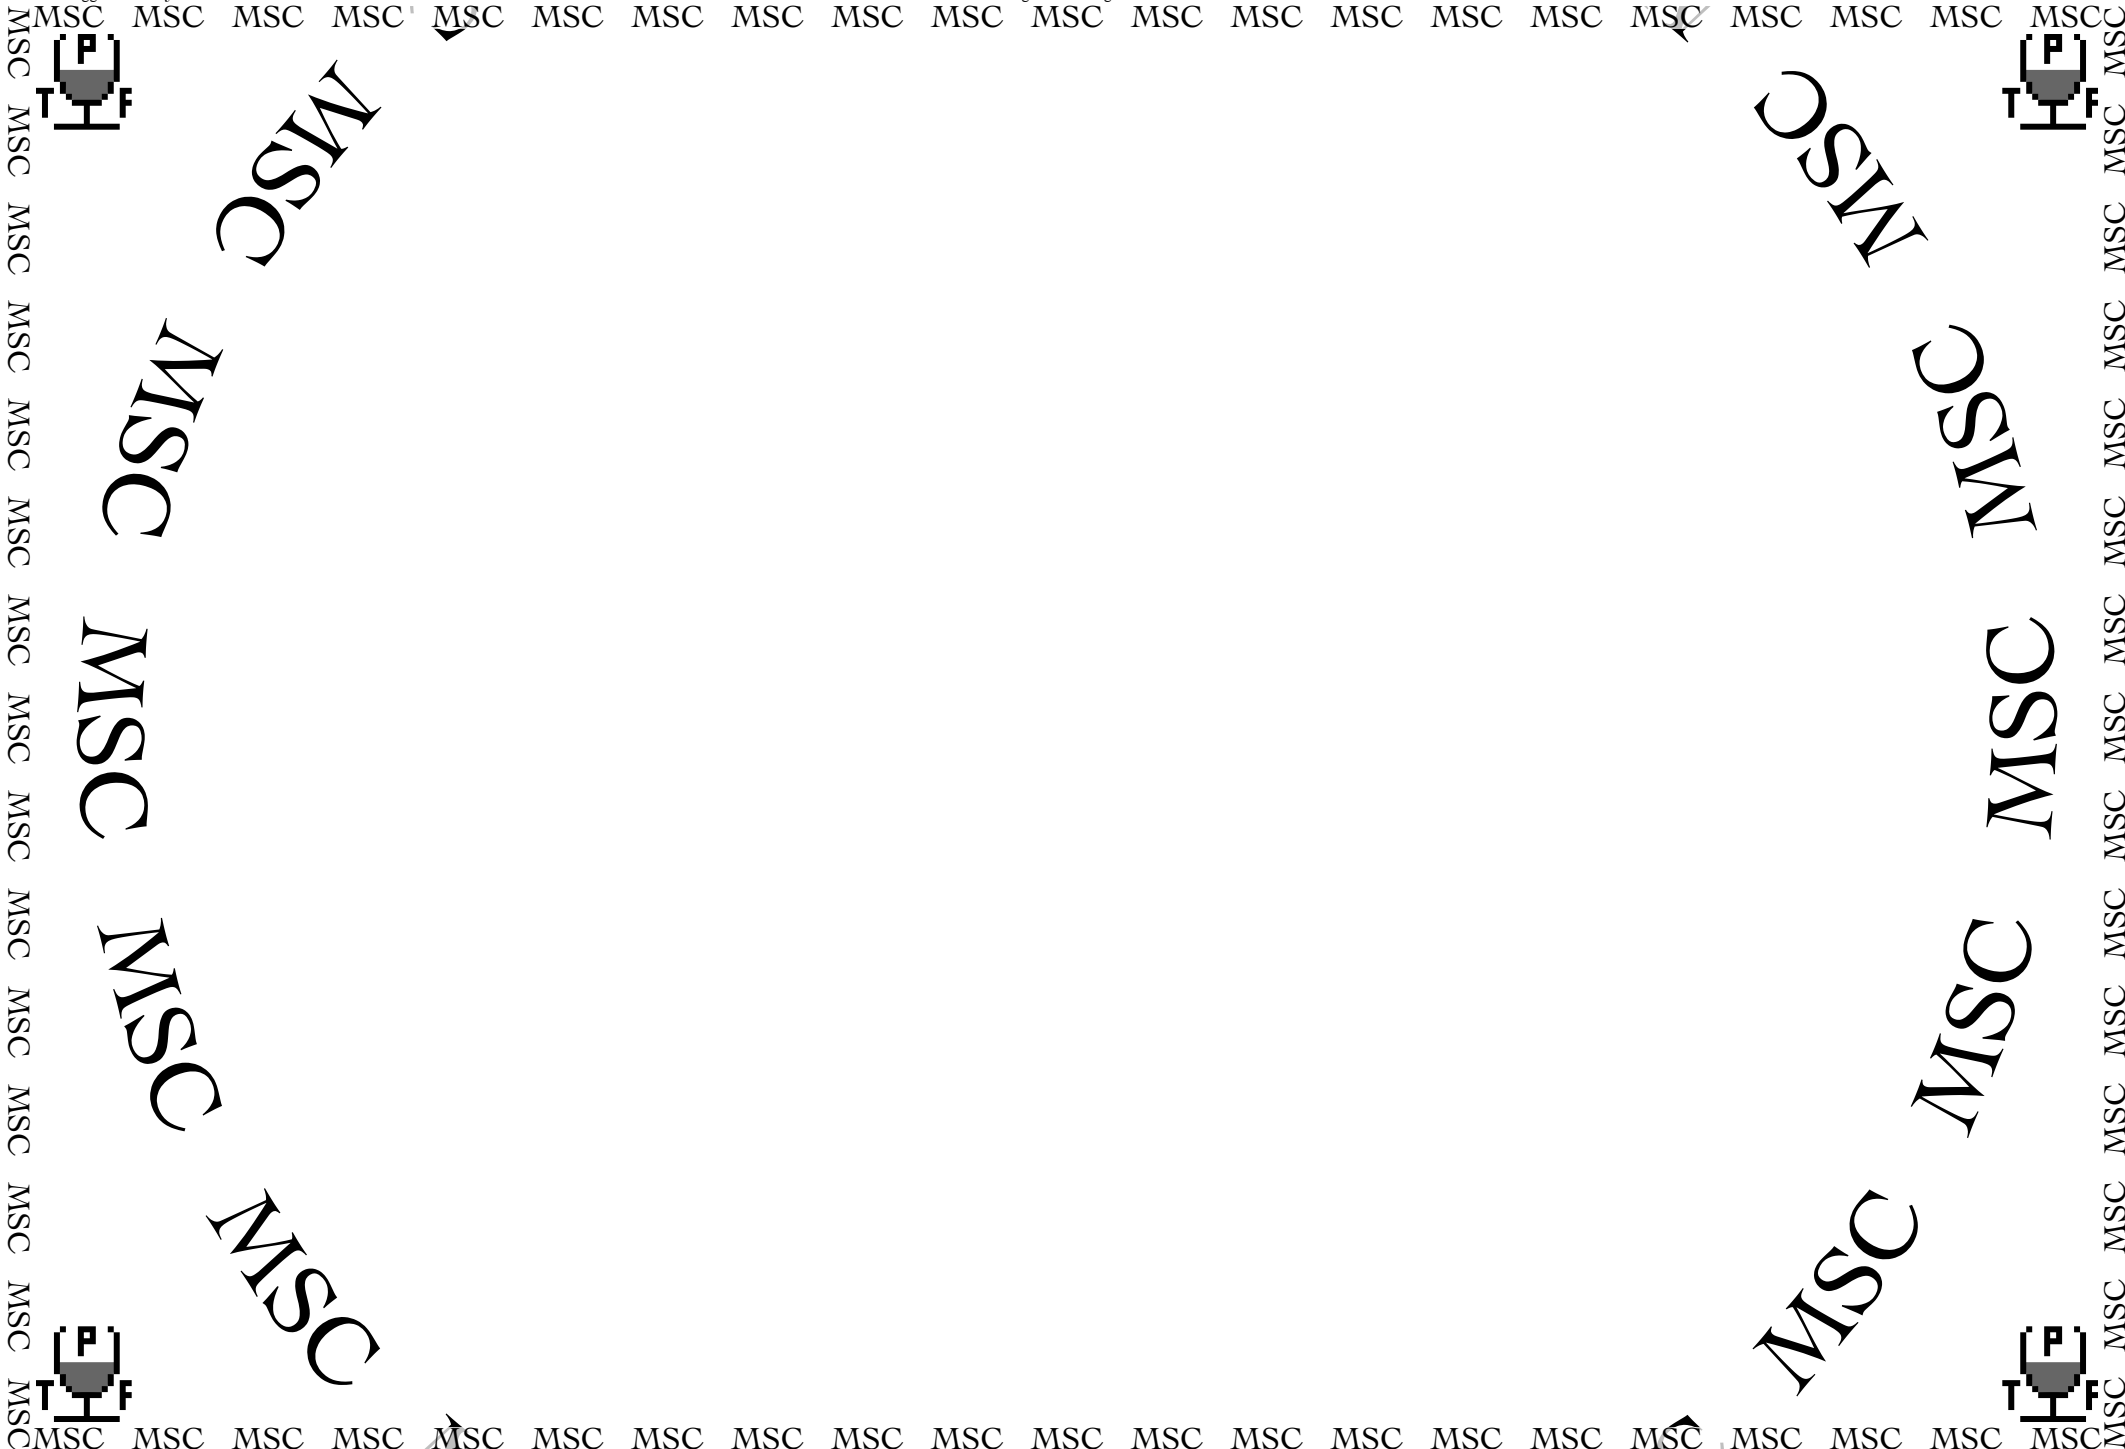

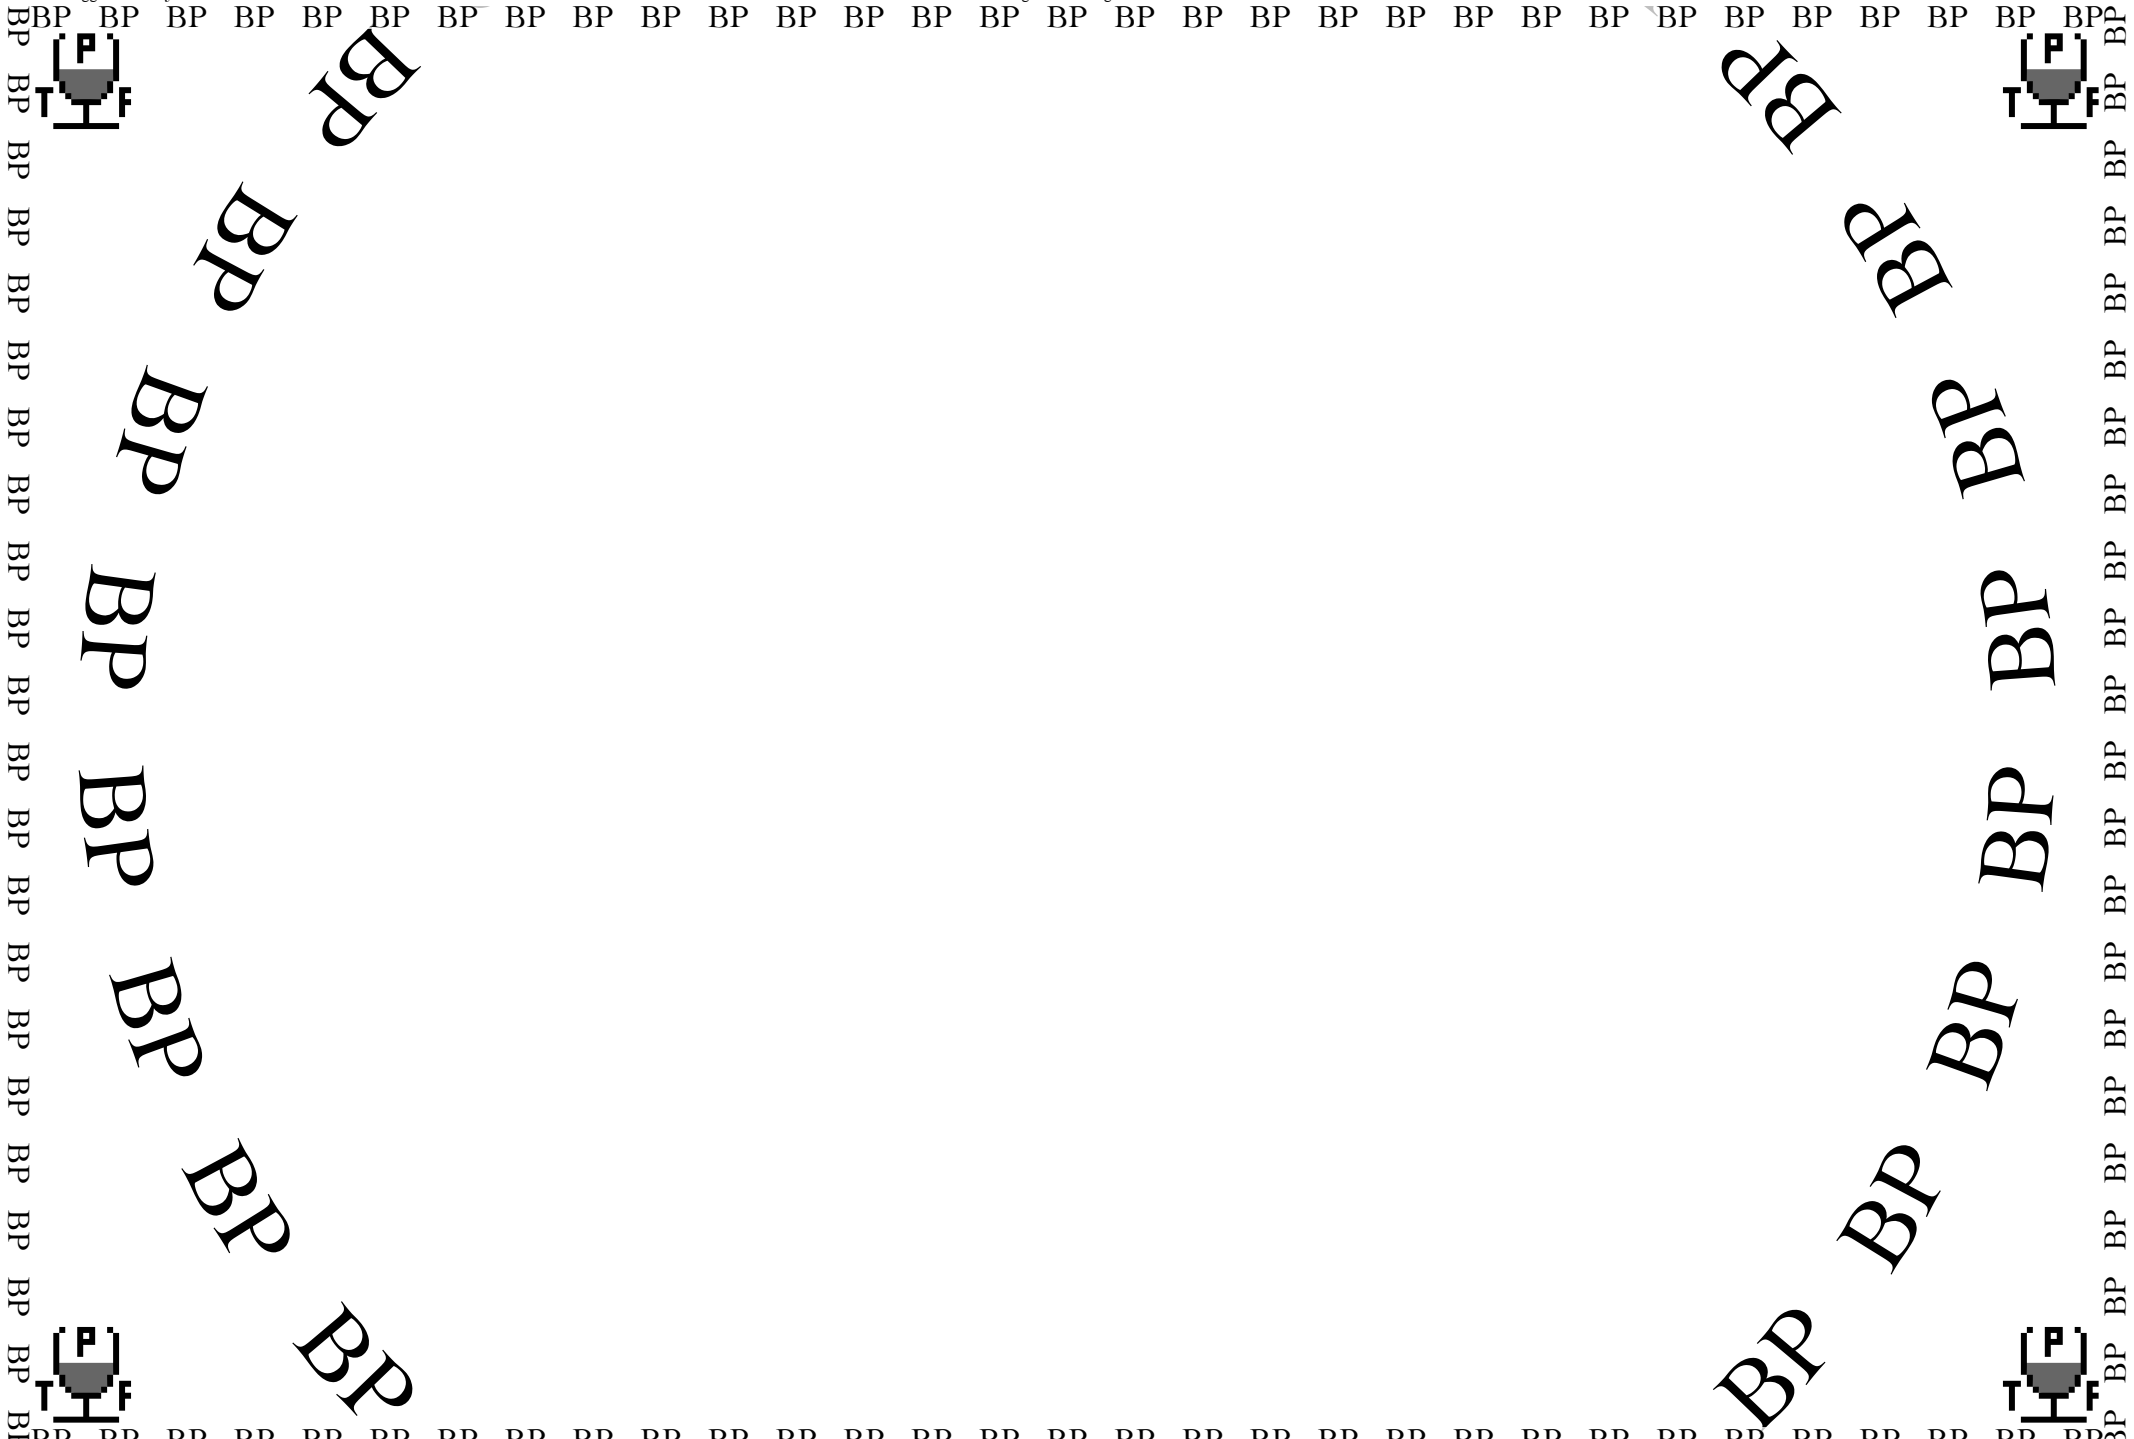

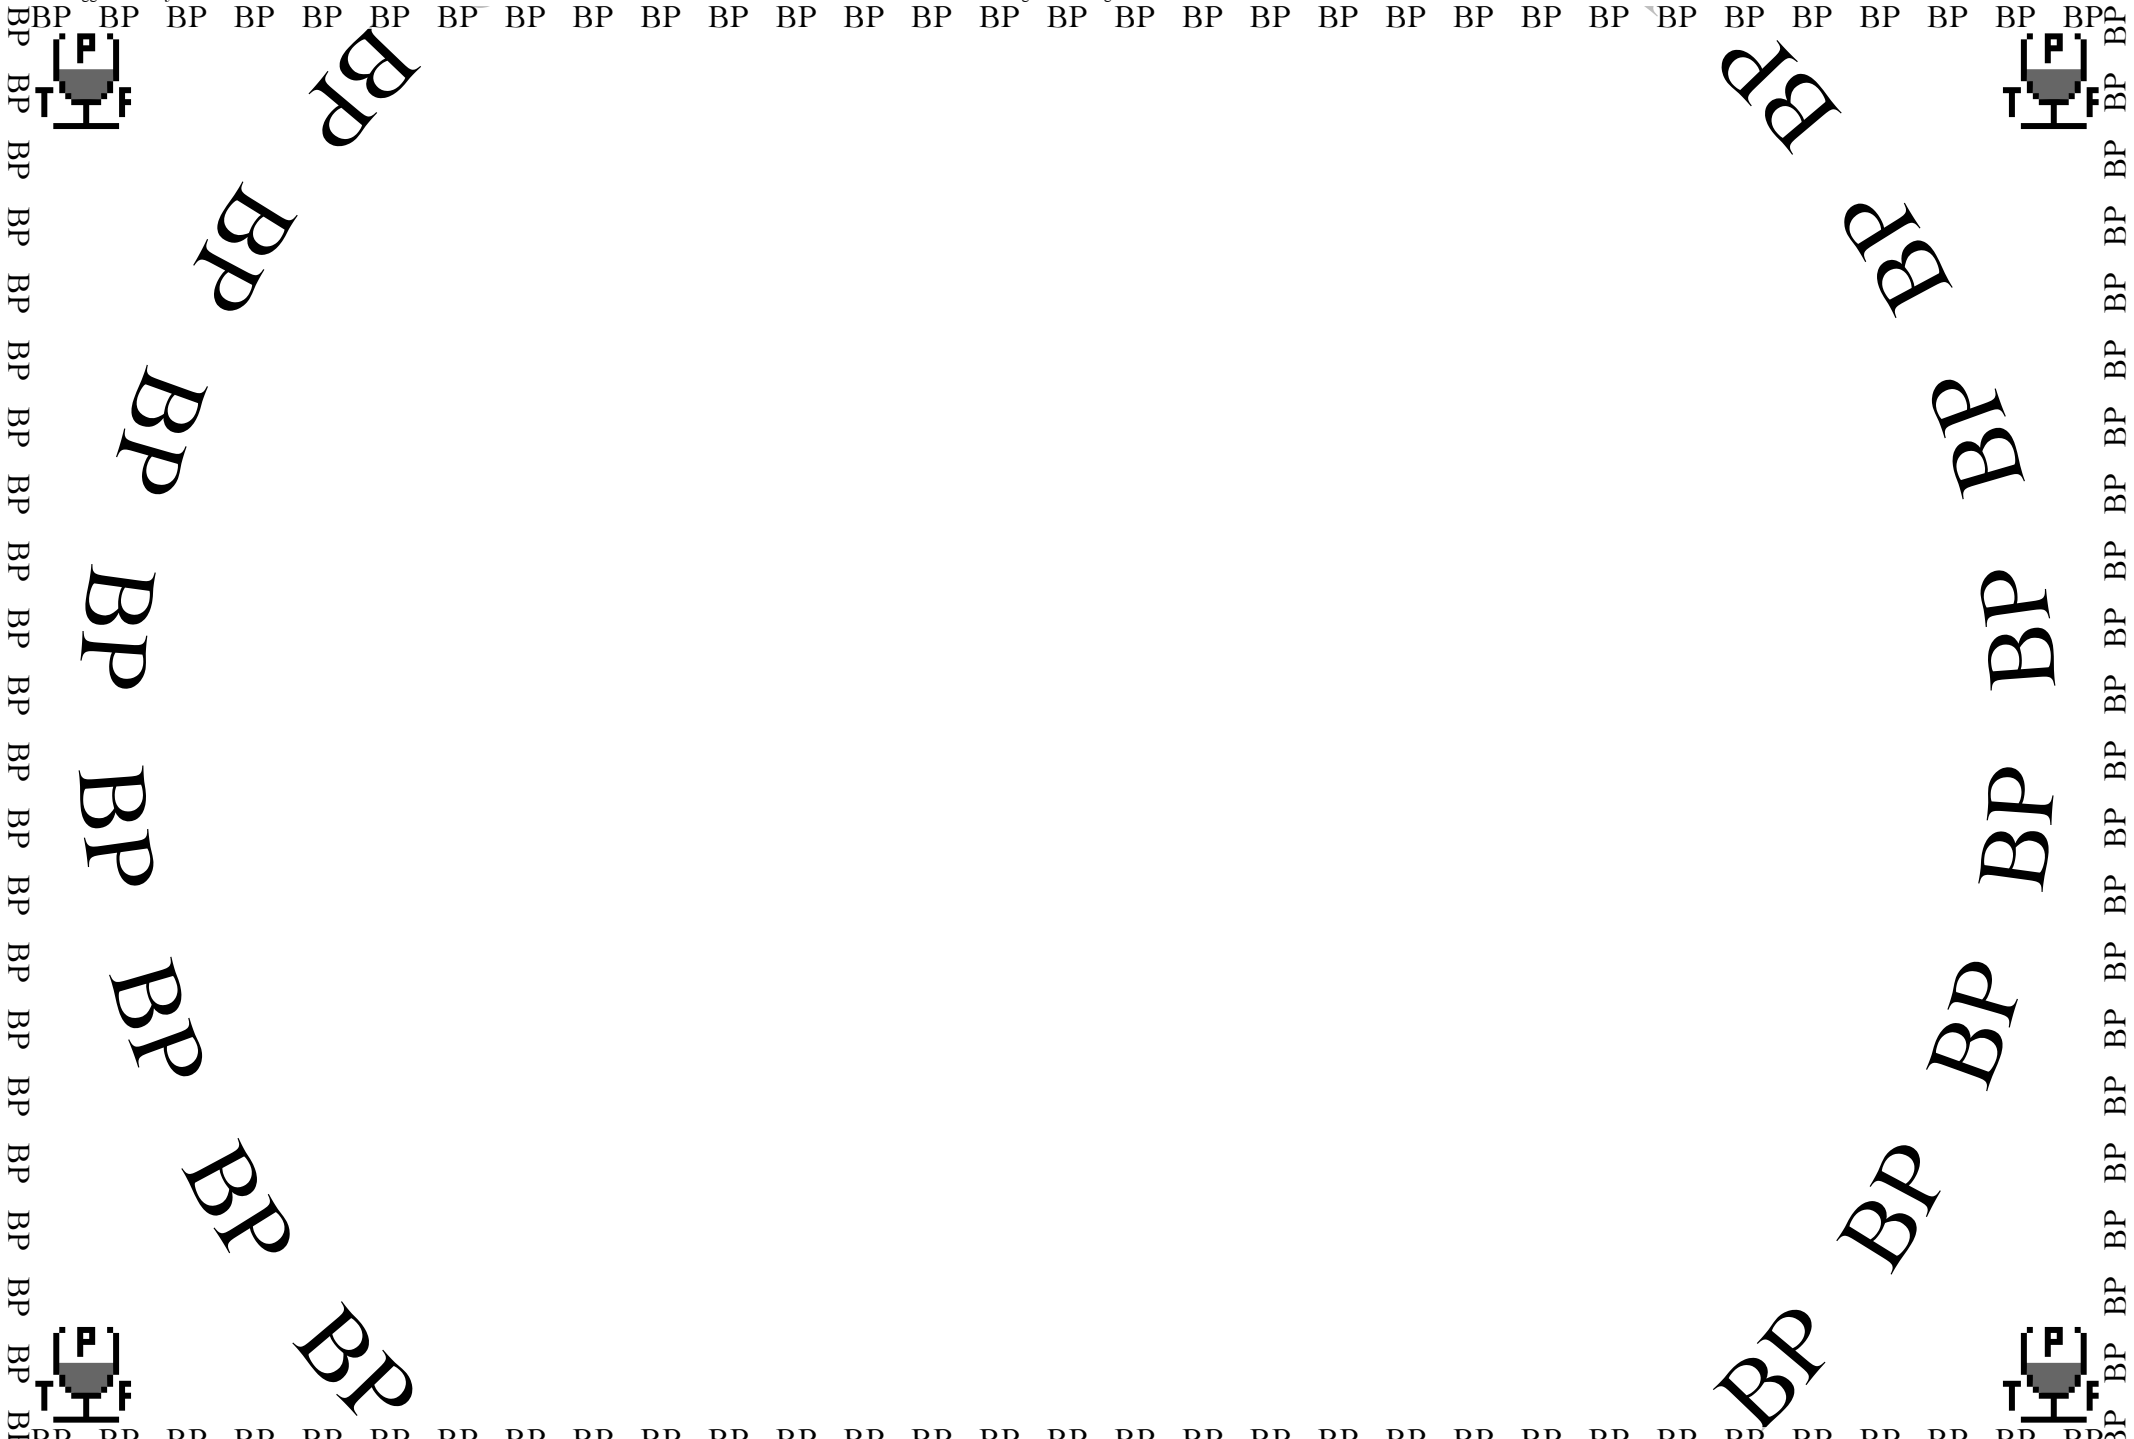

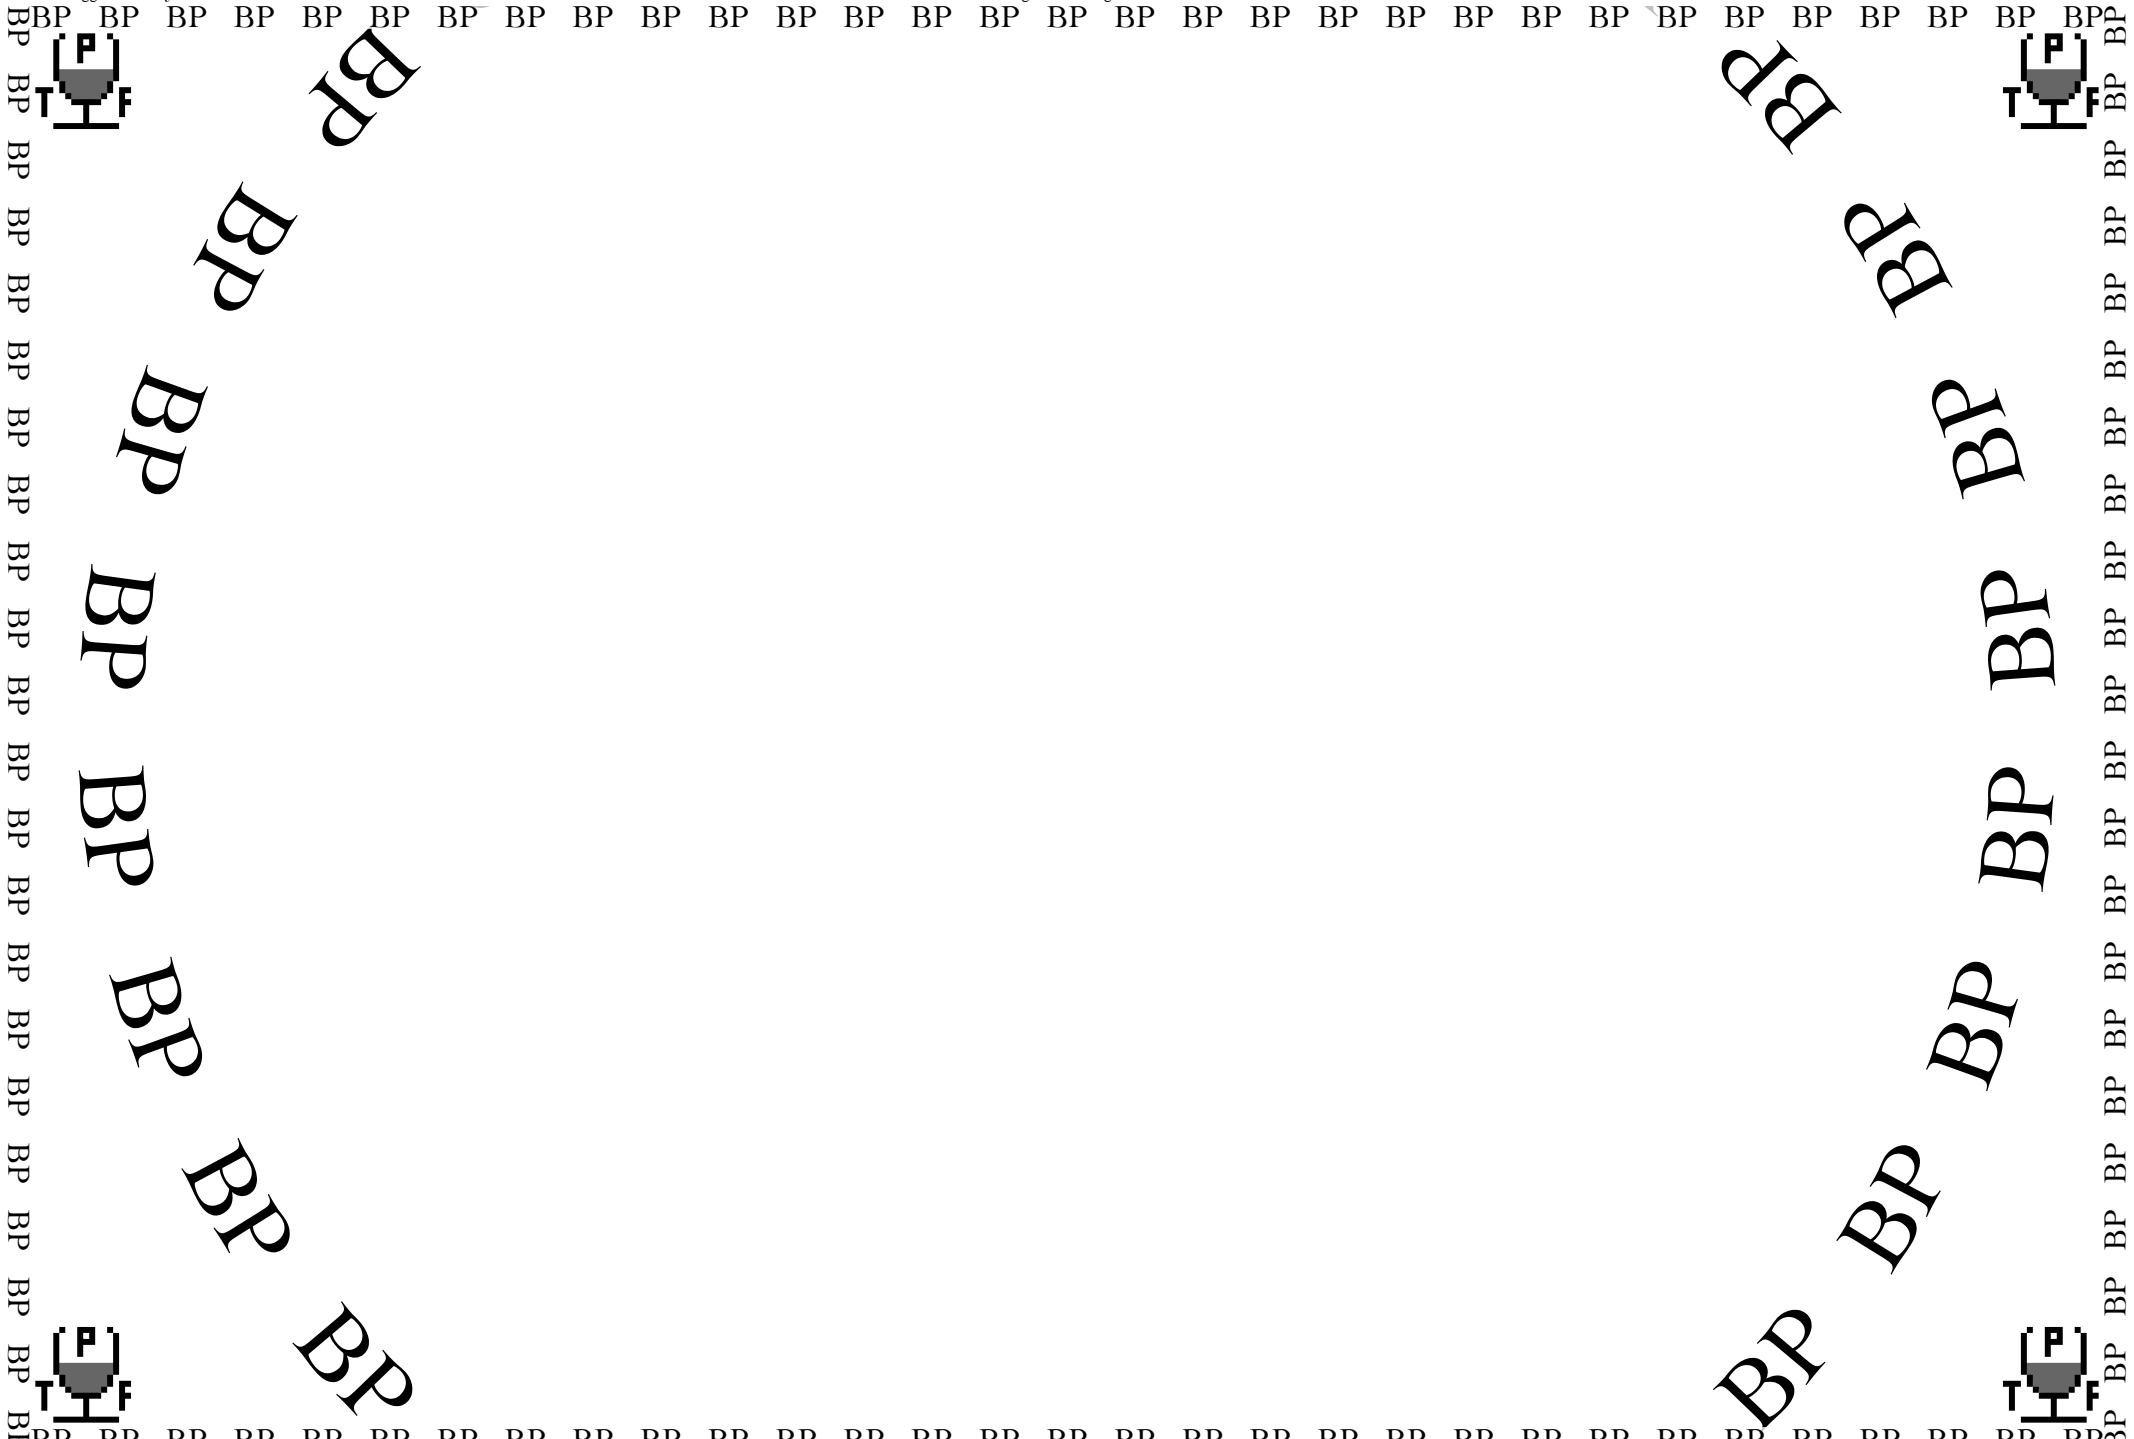

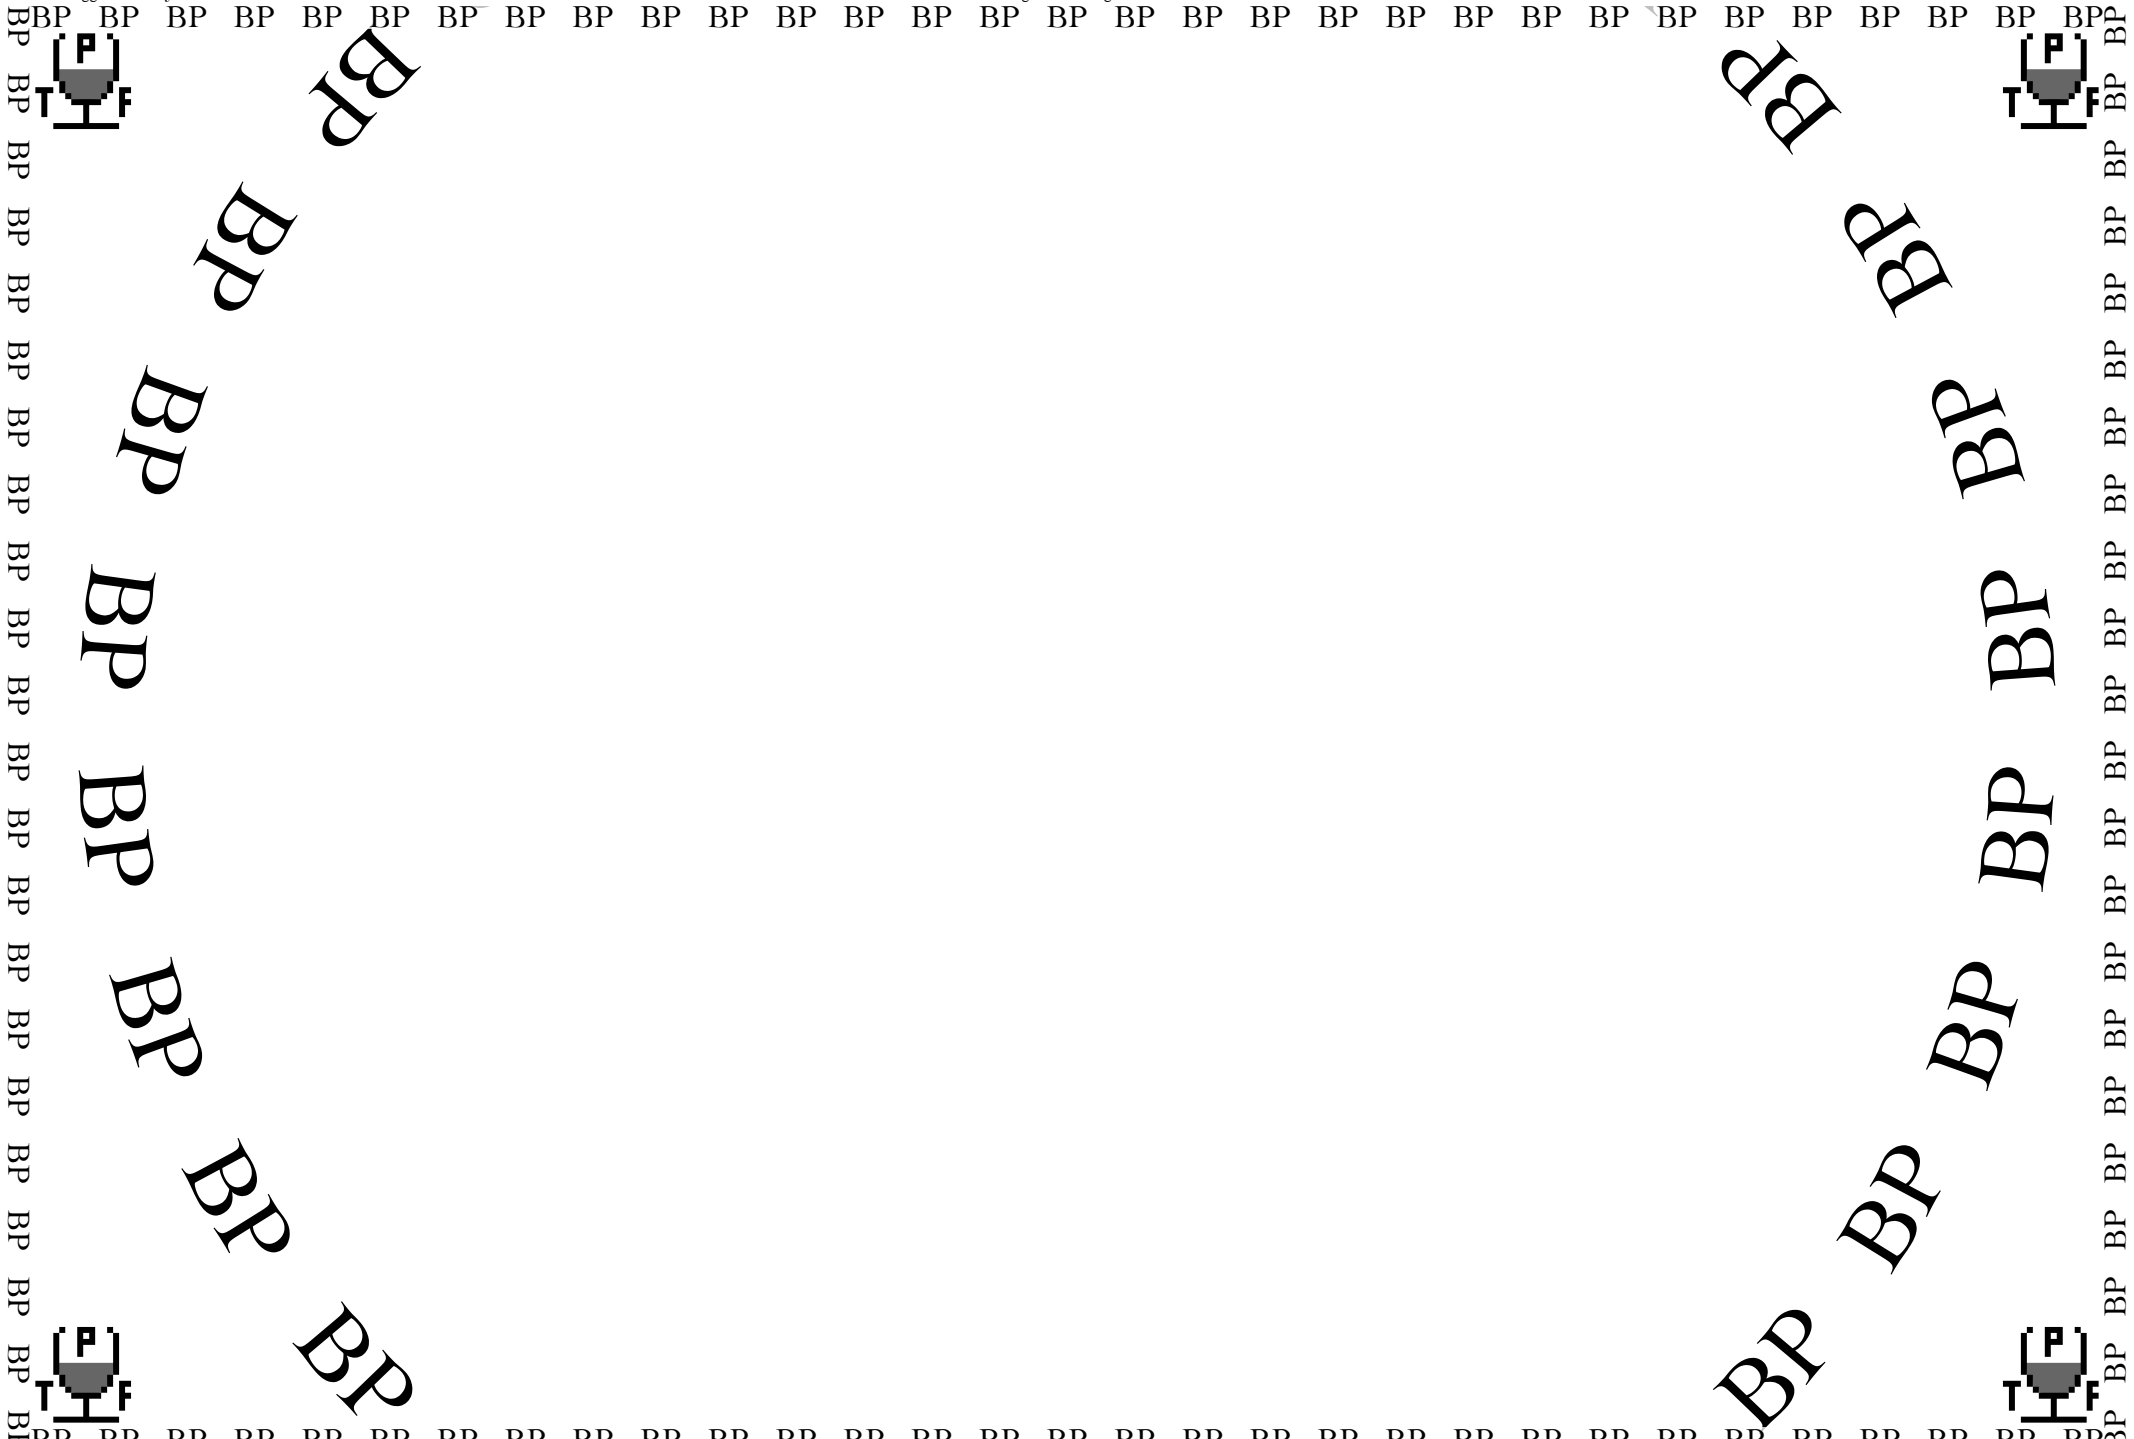

The image is a highly detailed and layered graphic design. At the center, the letters "CK50" are rendered in a large, bold, black serif font. Below them, the word "Raby" appears in a smaller, elegant script font. The entire composition is framed by a dense border of repeating text: "CEM Cockburn 1950 Raby". This text is oriented both horizontally and vertically, creating a sense of enclosure. Small, stylized icons of a building with a flag on top are interspersed among the text in the border. The background is white, which makes the black text and icons stand out prominently. The overall aesthetic is one of mid-20th-century modernism or institutional branding.

T48 Raby

CEM Taylor 1948 Raby

A circular graphic with 'D27' in the center, 'Raby' below it, and 'CEM' and 'Dow' around the perimeter. The year '1927' is repeated at the top and bottom. Small icons of a person in a hard hat are at the top and bottom.
